SOCIETY

Bishop George Stoddard tendered an elaborate reception to the choir of the Latter Day Saints' church, at his home last evening. The evening was spent by renditions by the choir, the church quartett and solos by Mr. Ferrin and others. Later, when music had entertained the large number of guests, the host announced dinner and the guests were ushered about a table laden with luxurious eatables and decorated with roses and flowers so as to make it resemble a bower, but when all were seated, they found the delicacies hidden beneath the flowers and mirth and pleasure reigned supreme. Post festival speeches were made by the host, Hon. C W Nibley and P S Bramwell. The party broke up after additional renditions of choir music and solos.

Those present were Messrs and Mesdames George Stoddard, F S Bramwell, W Y Stoddard, C P Ferrin, Norman Stoddard, A S Geddes, N J Christiansen, F C Bramwell, Messrs W K Davis, C W Nibley, J S Spiker, Elmer Stoddard, J H Trainer, E W Carbine, W Geddes, Lee Huff, Earl Wood, I M Bramwell, Leonard Price, Ray Schofield, David Stoddard, H M Monson, L A McBride, Mesdames J B Fisher and daughter, E Rosenbaum, H W Nibley, Leonard Christiansen, N W Schofield, Misses Jean Nibley, Kate Rogers, Nell Garrick, Emma Hall, Nell Price, Mabel Schofield, Emma Spiker, Gussie Hawkins, Dona Geddes, Grace Wood, Maud Schofield, Nellie Lindsey, Siota Huff, Olive Christiansen and Bertha Showers.
