AMUSEMENT

The Polmatier Sisters, the noted concert orchestra company assisted by H. E. Polmatier the musical specialist and flutist have been secured by the Commercial Club to appear in this city on February first. From eight to ten o'clock will be heard recitals musical renditions requiring art and skill. Aside from orchestra music will be cornet, trombone xylophone and vocal solos. From ten until one o'clock the six-piece orchestra, composed of the Polmatier sisters, will render dancing music.

Admissions to the concert will be fifty cents and to the dance will be an additional fifty cents.

Sleigh rides have superceeded every other mode of amusements and for the last three days, there has been more tired livery horses in La Grande than for a long time.

Saturday, besides numerous cutters and four seated outfits, there were three bob sleighs loaded down with happy individuals.

One crowd of twenty spent two hours sleighing, one hour in a private skating party at the Noyes rink and ended the evening's enjoyment by a spread at the restaurant.

The party given to the Damen-Krantz like the other, ended up with an oyster "feed".

From early yesterday morning until late last evening, cutters, bobs and every conceivable mode of snow locomotion, was drafted into service to fill the demand for those desiring to make the best of the excellent conditions for sleigh rides.

SKATING RINK DANCE

There will be a dance at the skating rink Wednesday evening. Skating will be discontinued at 9:30 when the dancing will begin. Admission, dancers 50 cents, skates 25 cents, Dancing and skating 50 cents.
