TEACHERS LISTEN TO SUGGESTIONS

Elgin, Union and many rural school teachers are assembled in the high school building today and listening to and taking part in the interesting program that had been arranged by Superintendent Bragg. Due to the illness of Mrs. Bragg, the county superintendent could not be present at the first session, and his place was taken by City Superintendent Hockenberry. More than fifty teachers were present when the first session was called to order this morning. The program contained many interesting and instructive numbers. This afternoon, Mr. Bragg was able to be present. Following is the program:
