HOW TO AVOID PNEUMONIA

We have never heard of a single instance of a cold resulting in pneumonia or other lung trouble when Foley's Honey and Tar has been taken. It not only stops the cough but heals and strengthens the lungs. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered. Dr. C. J. Bishop of Agnew, Mich., writes: "I have used Foley's Honey and Tar in three very severe cases of pneumonia with good results in every case."

AMUSEMENT

ARIZONA TONIGHT

La Grande theatre goers will certainly receive a real treat tonight by the presentation of Arizona under the direction of C. M. Devere, of the Lyric Stock Company of Salt Lake City. Mr. De Vere states that he was never better pleased with the work of any amateur company, and is especially well pleased with the ability displayed by his La Grande assistants. His players are all well up in their lines and he feels safe in saying that there will be nothing to mar the rendition of the piece.

During the intermission between the first and second acts Mrs. Maude Simpson Scroggins will present a pleasing specialty and between the third and fourth Mrs. Lillian Bates Richardson also has a highly entertaining specialty.

Arizona is replete with striking situations and strong climaxes, but the strongest one is in the second act when Lieut. Denton, resigns his commission. This scene enables Mr. Coolidge to display his powers in a most satisfactory manner. In the third act occurs some strong work when Mr. Gillilan, as Col. Bonham, accuses Lieut. Denton of the murder of Capt. Hodgmen. The trial scene in the fourth act is especially realistic and enables Mr. Chas Cross as the Mexican to display his ability to the satisfaction of all. The comedy parts are well taken care of by Capt. Adney Rogers and E. L. Eckley, and it is certain that these parts will receive their share of applause which will be accorded the other members of the company.

Theatre goers will find that Arizona as presented by local talent will possess all the finish, snap and ginger usually found in the productions of the better class of road companies. Remember, tonight,

THE POLMATIER SISTERS

The Polmatier Sisters, who the La Grande Commercial Club has secured to appear in this city on February first, have made decided hits wherever they have appeared. Their concerts are of a high class and the reciters are of the best. The six piece orchestra, composed of the six sisters, is credited to be a wonder and their dance music is something extraordinary.
