HOW TO AVOID PNEUMONIA

We have never heard of a single instance of a cold resulting in pneumonia or other lung trouble when Foley's Honey and Tar has been taken. It not only stops the cough but heals and strengthens the lungs. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered. Dr. C. J. Bishop of Agnew, Mich., writes: "I have used Foley's Honey and Tar in three very severe cases of pneumonia with good results in every case."

AMUSEMENT

The military drama of Arizona produced at Steward's opera house last night was a success in every particular, and was pronounced by those in attendance to be one of the best amateur performances ever put on the stage in this city. The entire cast of characters, with the exception of Mr. and Mrs. DeVere, was composed of local talent, each one deserving special mention.

Mrs. Richardson in the title role of Estrella Bonham was most superbly gowned and did a most creditable piece of acting and was most enthusiastically received. Mrs. Scroggin as Bonita Canby, portrayed the character in a manner true to life and dressed the part most becomingly. Miss Gertrude Biever, as school teacher, was prettily dressed and did a neat piece of acting and attracted much attention. Mrs. Ethel DeVere as Lena Kellar, the waitress was perfect in her work. Janette Stevens Kelley as Mrs. Canby acted her part to perfection and received many compliments from her friends.

Mr. C. E. Gillilan as Col. Bonham deserves great credit for his correct portrayal of the character. E. L. McKley as Henry Canby, owner of the Canby ranch, was received with great applause.

Capt. Hodgman, as portrayed by C. M. DeVere, did a most excellent piece of work. H. E. Coolidge, in the role of Lieut. Denton, did great credit to the part, also did A. C. Clark as surgeon. Charlie Cross, as Tona Mostano, the vaquero, was excellent, and was favorably received. A. B. Rogers, as Sgt. Kellar, rendered a most excellent portrayal of the part, also M. M. Childers as private Guigley.

The specialties introduced by Mrs. Scroggin and Mrs. Richardson were excellent and were enthusiastically received. Too much credit cannot be given to Mr. DeVere for the able manner in which he staged and directed the piece.

Mr. DeVere is very favorably and well known in the east and has much experience in the theatrical line.

THE POLMATIER SISTERS

The Polmatier Sisters, who the La Grande Commercial Club has secured to appear in this city on February first, have made decided hits wherever they have appeared. Their concerts are of a high class and the reciters are of the best. The six piece orchestra, composed of the six sisters, is credited to be a wonder and their dance music is something extraordinary.

"Sergeant Kitty" with dainty vivacious Helen Pyron heading the big cast employed, will be seen at the Steward Opera House on Saturday Feb. 2. There is a craze at the moment for things "musical" in the desires of the theatre goer. So great has this demand been that every order of entertainment from a slap stick farce up that had enough girls to be called a chorus has gone into the class called "musical" plays, but this one is a comic opera.

TAKING PRECEDENCE

Every social and business event, formerly scheduled to take place on Friday has either been annulled or postponed to allow the public at large to attend the Polmatier concert at the Commercial Club.

SOCIETY

The Methodist Glee Club is to have its second party, next Saturday evening. The hostesses Mrs. C. S. Williams and Miss Mabel Williams, postponed the event from Friday to Saturday to allow attendance at the Polmatier concert at the Commercial Club, and on Saturday evening, at the home of Miss Mabel Williams, the club will be entertained in its second party of the series.
