NUMBER SIX ANNULLED

Passenger number six, east bound, was annulled this morning because of the snow slide between Hood River and Bridal Veil. A train from Portland, coming as first section of number two, will pull into La Grande shortly after nine o'clock this evening.

CLOTHES LINE IS ROBBED

Mr and Mrs J J Rack are today the losers of approximately one hundred dollars worth of clothes, because some individual last evening "took in" the entire wash line in the rear of the Rack residence. Mrs Rack is the heavier loser of the two for the reason that more of her wearing apparel was on the line at the time that the thief happened along.

Mr and Mrs Rack attended the theatre last evening and on coming home discussed whether or not the clothes that had been hanging on the line, since Saturday, should be taken in before retiring. As it was raining at the time the line was unmolested.

This morning, there was no clothes there. Tracks in the snow under the line told how the thief had made repeated trips to the fence and back after more. When he had either been scared away or made as big a haul as he cared to take away, he had wandered on. Several lines of clothes in the adjoining lots did not attract attention and the Rack line was the only sufferer.

Who ever the individual was, he used no discrimination in selecting the various articles, but made a clean sweep of everything.

PEOPLE THANKFUL

(Scripta News Association)
Spawneetown, Ill., Jan 29.—The Ohio and Wabash rivers are beginning to recede and today the refugees of all towns affected are holding prayer meetings in the rooms unflooded. The first mail in ten days reached here today. A launch this morning found hundreds of refugees on short rations, living in tents, holding carnival in camp and dancing at nights.

FINE STEEL RANGES

If you are going to buy a steel range, come and examine our celebrated Majestic range. It is surprising at the small amount of fuel they consume and give perfect satisfaction. I also have a few heaters left. This is the time when you need them

Do not forget about carriage heaters. They will keep your feet warm on a long drive.

MRS. T. N. MURPHY
Hardware and Ranges
