

KITTY GIRLS IN SERGEANT KITTY

AMUSEMENT

SERGEANT KITTY

Pretty music, clever comedy, picture-characters and splendid equipment of "Sergeant Kitty" the brightest and most original comic opera to be seen here this season. Helen Byron is a dainty and coquettish charmer that leaves no heart in her audience unwon. The comedians, James McFhearn and Tom Hadaway keep everyone bubbling with mirth for three all too short hours. This dashing little military opera concerns the comic side of French Army Life and involves the love affairs of three couples introducing the scheme of a winsome, headstrong girl who loves an officer and is determined to have her way despite the opposition of an equally headstrong aunt who has a love affair of her own to manage. A couple, already married in secret, are drawn into the resulting trouble, and there is a merry comedy of errors that all ends happily. Every character in the cast is in competent hands we are promised, and the general ensemble is at Stewards Opera House Saturday Feb. 2.

This evening at eight o'clock the Polmatier sisters will open their concert and recital in the Commercial Club Auditorium. At ten o'clock dancing commences and continues until one o'clock to music rendered by the ladies' six piece orchestra. On Wednesday evening the group of musicians, readers and writers, more than pleased the Dalles Elks, who had secured their services. In a telegram to this city yesterday, the exalted ruler of The Dalles Elks speaks in glowing terms of their concert.

Doors open at seven thirty. Admission to concert, fifty cents; to dance, fifty cents.
