An Eye Specialist of Uncommon Ability
MAKES EXAMINATIONS FREE

Dr. Pons is being kept quite busy. Many people are taking advantage of this noted specialist's visit here to have proper glasses fitted. The doctor makes every pair of glasses he fits himself, insuring a perfect fit, and those who have gotten glasses from him consider his charges very reasonable. The doctor's office hours are from 9 a. m. till 12 m., and from 5 until 7 p. m.
The doctor guarantees any glasses fitted by him to be entirely satisfactory and we can vouch for the fact that he is thoroughly reliable.

OREGON OSTEOPATHS ASK FOR SQUARE DEAL

We beg to call your attention to provisions of Senate Bill 69 and House Bill 253 as follows: It calls for—
First: An examining board to be appointed by the Governor, said board being of no expense to the state.
Second: Preliminary education equal to high school diploma or college entrance examination, before examination for practice.
Third: Three years of nine months each, college work as examination before Board in Anatomy, physiology, histology, pathology, chemistry, toxicology, diagnosis, hygiene, obstetrics, gynecology, minor surgery, principles and practice of Osteopathy.
Fourth: Licensing of Osteopaths already in the state.
Fifth: All Osteopaths are prohibited from giving drugs or practicing surgery.
Sixth: As amended Section 10 provides that this act shall not be construed as to interfere with or prevent the practice of or use of massage, Swedish movement, physical culture, or other natural methods requiring the use of the hand or hands, provided that each person or persons do not violate the provisions of Section 7 of this act or any part or parts of said Section.

We beg to call attention that this act is strictly to regulate the practice of Osteopathy and in no way interferes with any other method or system of treatment.

WHAT A JOKE

Al Good and Constable Faulk have just provocations for wearing the broad smile.
Yesterday afternoon the constable and the thrashing machine man had occasion to participate in a friendly chat during a stroll towards the Justice of the Peace office. That all looked suspicious to passersby but after they had returned from Justice Hough's office; and Mr. Good had begun an earnest appeal for bondsmen, then it was that his friends grew bold and approached him with "Why what's the matter Al, you certainly are not under arrest?" "Yes, I am", sorrowfully replied Mr. Good to such inquiries, "and I want seventeen dollars to liquidate my bonds."
Al has an eye for a good joke and nudging the constable, he continued his search for bondsmen. Mr. Faulk had fallen in with the fun, and to inquiries as to the reason for Mr. Good's arrest he replied that Mr. Good had "thrashed" two of our respected citizens and must suffer the consequences. One of our leading business men came to the rescue and in response to Al's earnest appeal, he offered to go the bonds, stating "E'n tho' it takes half my kingdom." Even Recorder Snook was a victim, and expressed his sympathies to Mr. Good with the admonition that justice must be enforced, and the way of the transgressor is hard. And today the good Samaritan business man is looking for Al Good.

WALLACE TRILL WINS

At the annual oratorical contest at Willamette University, Wallace Trill, a member of the junior class in the law school, was the winner with an oration on "The March of Democracy." Mr. Trill was presented with a handsome prize and will represent Willamette University in the state oratorical contest at McMinnville next March. Wallace is a brother of Ralph E. Trill of this city, and was formerly a resident of La Grande.

ARE YOUR COLLARS CRACKED?

No doubt of it. Come to us and let us demonstrate to you the manner in which they have been cracked. Then we will show you are modern collar dampers and shaper, and explain to you the modern way of doing up collars. Remember we have the only modern machines for this work in this city.
