"THIS IS MY 49TH BIRTHDAY"

JONATHAN P. DOLLIVER

(Scripps News Association)

Jonathan P. Dolliver, whom Iowa has just re-elected to the United States Senate, was born near Kingwood, W. Va., February 6, 1858. He was graduated in 1876 from the West Virginia University and was admitted to the bar in 1878, after his removal to the West. The first few years of his residence in Iowa were spent in building up a big law practice and in gaining a reputation as a finished and able orator. Beginning with the Fifty-first Congress he was regularly re-elected until appointed United States Senator in 1893 to succeed the late J. H. Gear. In 1902 he was elected for the six year term. Mr. Dolliver has a national reputation for his original campaign methods. When campaigning for Congress he held his meetings in a large tent and made liberal use of an advance agent and posters in circus-like fashion. He is a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and it is said he caught the idea of his original campaign methods from the camp-meetings which he attended in his early days.
