The postmaster general of England gives the following statistics in regard to the interchange of letters and post cards between that country and the United States: In 1881 England sent to this country 7,795,000 letters and post cards...

The special council meeting last evening did not prove to be such a war like affair after all. When the usual preliminaries were finished and the real work of the evening began there was no opposition to passing the ordinance as amended.

light and power plant, but felt that it would be best to first secure the water rights and then after the pipe line had been established, and all litigation adjudicated if the voters so desire, vote additional bonds with which to install the electric plant.

The chances are that what you call "hard luck", or "fate" that is against you, is some weakness, some vicious habit, which is counteracting all your efforts and keeping you down.—Success.

A Kansas editor gives the following heart-to-heart talk to boys:

Young man, why don't you be decent? Why not grow to manhood with honor and credit instead of having a stain upon your character? Cigarettes and gambling and whiskey have had many a wrestle with boys long before you come on the scene and they never yet have been thrown.

The boy who turns a brazen face to a mother's grief never goes very far on the road to happiness. When he gets a little older you will find his name on the police docket of various cities, a little later the dark shadows of stone walls loom up across his pathway.

Into each life some sorrow must fall; Wise people don't sit down and saw; Only fools suicide or take to flight; Smart people take Rocky Mountain Tea at night.

DIED SUDDENLY OF HEART DISEASE.

How frequently does a head line similar to the above greet us in the newspapers. The rash, push and strenuousness of the American people has a strong tendency to lead up to valvular and other affections of the heart, attended by irregular action, palpitation, dizziness, smothered sensations and other distressing symptoms.

WISE COUNSEL FROM THE SOUTH

"I want to give some valuable advice to those who suffer with lame back and kidney trouble," says J. R. Blankenship of Beck, Tenn. "I have proved to an absolute certainty that Electric Bitters will positively cure this distressing condition.
