

TO BUILD BIG NEW HOSPITAL

Articles of incorporation were prepared today for the building and operation of a brick hospital. The capital stock is fixed at $16,000, all of which has been subscribed. The incorporators are Dr's Richardson, Mollitor and Bacon.

The building will be modern in every respect, steam heated, properly ventilated, modern operating rooms, in fact a properly equipped hospital in the full sense of meaning.

It is the intention to have the work on the building started right away. It is expected that one of the three sites now under consideration will be selected within the next few days.

UNDERTAKERS IN CONVENTION

(Scripps News Association)
Hutchinson, Kas., Feb. 12—There was a large attendance today at the opening of a convention of undertakers from central and western Kansas, eastern Colorado and northern Oklahoma. The principal feature of the meeting, which is to be in session several days, is a school of instruction for both undertakers and those learning the business. Several prominent experts are on hand to give lectures and practical demonstrations of new theories of embalming.

M'MANUS IS SILENT

"I have been instructed by my attorney, Judge Fee, not to talk regarding my case, and so I can say nothing now excepting that when I am brought to trial I will tell the truth about the whole affair and take the consequences, whatever they may be."

The above brief statement was made to the Pendleton East Oregonian Monday morning by John P. McManus, who shot to death Bob Estes in the rear of the Pullman saloon Saturday evening. The statement was made through the barred door of the county jail, where McManus has been confined since his arrest immediately after the tragedy. Although still suffering from the effects of his terrible experience McManus was comparatively composed this morning and apparently had recovered from his intoxication. To the writer he expressed deep regret that the affair had happened, but his sorrow is not that of one whose conscience is burdened with the thought that he killed a fellow being in cold blood and without provocation. He bears up well considering the crime with which he is charged, and but for the instructions of his lawyer would have freely told all of the circumstances in the case. He says he had never known the name of the man he killed and knew him simply from the experience he had with him while here upon his drunk. The only Estes he could recall personally was the one who had conducted a saloon at Pilot Rock.

As to when McManus will be brought to trial nothing has yet been settled. The jury term of circuit court is now on and so, if desired by both sides, the case could probably be fought out at this time. Otherwise it will go over to a later term.—Pendleton E. O.

ESTES FUNERAL WEDNESDAY

No definite arrangements have yet been made for the funeral of Estes, but it will probably occur on Wednesday, said the Pendleton East Oregonian of Monday.

The wife of the dead man, who lives in North Yakima, has been notified and is expected to reach there by that day. The body is now held at the Baker & Folsom undertaking parlors. The dead man was one of six brothers, the others being Charles Estes, Green Estes, John Estes, Lou Estes, and Claud Estes of Athena.

Today a post-mortem examination of the body was made by Drs. McFaul and Bes'. It was found that the bullet had struck the spinal column, from whence it had been deflected to the point where it came out under the left nipple. Some of the large arteries were severed by the ball.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, is not a secret or patent medicine, against which the most intelligent people are quite naturally averse because of the uncertainty as to its harmless character. It is a medicine of known composition, a full list of all its ingredients being printed in plain English on every bottle wrapper. An examination of this list of ingredients will disclose the fact that it is non-alcoholic in its composition, chemically pure glycerine taking the place of the commonly used alcohol, in its makeup. The "Favorite Prescription" of Dr. Pierce is in fact the only medicine put up for the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments, sold through druggists, that does not contain alcohol and that too in large quantities. Furthermore, it is the only medicine for woman's special diseases, the ingredients of which have the unanimous endorsement of all the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice; and that too as remedies for the ailments for which "Favorite Prescription" is recommended.

A little book of some of these endorsements will be sent to any address, post paid, and absolutely free if you request same by postal card or letter, of Dr. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
Don't forget that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for woman's weaknesses and delicate ailments, is not a patent or secret medicine, being the "Favorite Prescription" of a regularly educated and graduated physician engaged in the practice of his chosen specialty—that of diseases of women—that its ingredients are printed in plain English on every bottle wrapper; that it is the only medicine especially designed for the cure of woman's diseases that contains no alcohol, and the only one that has a professional endorsement worth more than all the so-called "testimonials" ever published for other medicines. Send for these endorsements as above. They are free for the asking.
If you suffer from periodical headache, backache, dizziness, pain or dragging down sensation low down in the abdomen, weak back, have disagreeable and weak-lung, catarrhal, pelvic drain, or are in distress from being long on your feet, then you may be sure of benefit from taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.
Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets the best laxative and regulator of the bowels. They invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. One a laxative; two or three a cathartic.

AMUSEMENT

PARISH PRIEST POPULAR

There was beautiful little story related on the stage of the Steward Opera House last evening when local talent, under the direction of C. M. De Vere presented the pastoral drama entitled A Parish Priest. There was a marked absence of rough language, the blood and thunder, which amateurs usually resort to, but instead of these undesirabilities, there was a quiet little story told, which could not help but interest the hearers. Rev John Whalen was the title role, and was depicted H. E. Coolidge in a playing manner. During the four hours which the play was supposed to consumed the priest in his amiable manner straightened out the love tangles with a master hand. E. L. Eckley as Doctor Cassidy won applause for the humorous interpretation he placed on the old doctor's character.

If the play has such a thing as a villain it was Dr Edward Welsh. This character was impersonated by G. E. Gillilan. At all times was his acting and enunciation excellent but especially so in the last act where he and Ethel Stewart De Vere did a pretty little turn.

By skillful manipulations Father Whalen had all but healed the eruptions existing between the two and as a final close to the temporary rupture, the two mentioned enacted the prettiest turn of the play. G. M. Richey acted his part to the satisfaction of all.

A. B. Rogers, as the main source of humor made a decided hit with his Irish brags and makeup. C. M. De Vere as Frank Dougher maintained his usual high reputation.

Agnes Cassidy, the girl without a temper was Lillian Bates Richardson. No criticism could be made of the way she rendered what is no doubt the most difficult part in the story. Date Corrigan, with her "Irish" was ably taken by Mrs. Maud Simpson Scroggin. Her appearance always called for laughter. Nellie Durkin, a niece of Father Whalen, was carried by Ethel Stewart De Vere in a winning manner.

Mrs. Scroggin captured the audience with a song specialty between the first and second acts, while Mrs. Richardson pleased the audience with two beautiful solos between the second and third acts. The entire performance went off smoothly and without a hitch.

TRAINING HARD

The participants in the coming athletic exhibition in the opera house, are going to be physically prepared to withstand the ordeal. Both Moleno and Darnell are doing hard stunts to reduce weight, lengthen the wind, and harden muscles. Moleno jogs to Hot Lake to take a bath once in a while and comes back feeling like a fighting machine. Darnell, too is encouraging his friends by his showing. With the big date just one week away, he will work carefully from now on. His friends are giving him the best of care, as well as looking out for an abundance of training. The event will not be a farce because of physical inability of the contestants.
