HOW TO AVOID PNEUMONIA
 We have never heard of a single instance of a cold resulting in pneumonia or other lung trouble when Foley's Honey and Tar has been taken. It not only stops the cough but heals and strengthens the lungs. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered. Dr. C.
 J. Bishop of Agnew, Mich., writes: "I have used Foley's Honey and Tar in three very severe cases of pneumonia with good results in every case."

LA GRANDE GIRLS MEET DEFEAT AT BAKER CITY

(Observer Special)
 Baker City, Feb. 16—The girls' team from La Grande went down in easy defeat to the local team on the Baker City court last night. At the sound of the whistle the Baker girls went at it with a whirl and completely outplayed the visitors. When the half ended they had scored four field goals but missed the two or three attempts at a free throw. Nothing daunted by the score of eight to nothing with the big end against them, the La Grande girls went at it with increased determination. The Baker girls duplicated their playing of the first half, for before the game was over, four more goals had been thrown.

Hattie McMurray for the visitors landed one and the only field goal before the whistle blew, thus making the final score sixteen to two in Baker's favor.

Both teams had several free throws but missed them all. The visitors made an excellent showing in view of the fact that this was their first game this year, and with the exception of Miss McMurray all were playing their first game.

At the close of the game, the local girls arranged for a skating party where the contestants met on more amicable terms.

The La Grande team was entertained here today and will return to their home tonight.

DELMAS DISCOVERED FACTS

named as co-respondent. Evelyn always maintained that she was named without cause. Delmas wanted to know all about it. Soon after the summons she returned. As a result of a conference between the attorney's fighting for the life of Harry K. Thaw, it has been decided that Evelyn will be the first witness called next Monday morning when the court convenes. The direct examination will continue along lines to prove Thaw's insanity.

To her husband accompanied by Delmas and O'Reilly where they remained late this afternoon in conference with Thaw and his wife. It is stated that Delmas fears surprises when District Attorney Jerome begins to cross examine the girl.

At the conference today the importance of keeping nothing from the attorneys was emphasized. Another recital of her life is possible arising from the Lederer incident. This is attributed to Abel Hummel, who in retaliation for the testimony Evelyn gave against him, has been in conference with Jerome.

DESIRES PERMANENT PEACE

(Scripture News Association)
 Berlin, Feb. 16.—Chancellor Von Buelow is outlining the policy of the government following the election gave out his first interview today. The statement is entirely incorrect to suppose that as a result of the elections the tendency will be for an aggressive foreign policy. The Emperor favors no war like tendency, as the foreign nations presume. He desires permanent peace.

The question placed before the electorate was to retain or abandon the German Southwest possession in Africa, the relation of which the country holds not as an aggressive imperialism.

SOCIETY

The second party to be given by the Methodist Glee Club, occurred last evening at the Mrs. Mary Aldrich home, with Miss Mertie Aldrich and Mrs. James Ireland the hostesses. The decoration scheme was suggestive of St Valentine's day, for in the reception room and parlor were criss-crossed strings of red hearts, and bouquets of red carnations. From the ceiling of the hall, hearts of the same color were dangling. In the dining room the color scheme was varied, pink hearts and smilax being the colors used. To differentiate the strings of hearts in this room from the other rooms, the strings were fastened in the center of the room and hung in graceful curves to the four corners of the table. Under this pyramid of smilax and hearts, Miss Mabel Williams served love cakes and coffee. In another corner Miss Floy Massee supervised over the cherry frappe bowl.

A novel scheme of amusement was introduced by the hostesses. The guests, on a piece of paper, told of their personal charms without disclosing their identity or sex. After the papers had been laid on the auctioneer's table, F. B. Currey took the stand and commenced a wholesale of personal charms. From five dollars up to one hundred and fifty dollars varied the bids for the charms as shouted by the auctioneer. When some one of the guests heard of charms that pleased him he would bid to the extent of his cash account. But alas! many a man, and woman too, were disappointed to find that they had wasted their fortune on one of their own sex. Prizes for the highest bid on charms were awarded to Mrs. C. S. Williams and Mr. Pinkerton.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Williams, Geo. L. Cleaver and Miss Mabel Williams sang several beautiful solos and duets. Miss Bush favored the guests with a piano solo. As a fitting close to the delightful evening's entertainment, the guests gathered about the piano and sang old familiar college songs.

The High Five Club was entertained last Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. A. Buckley. Prizes were won by Mesdames Paterson and J. E. Foley.

Mesdames Turner Oliver and N. Molitor last evening entertained the Evening Kaffee Klatch at the home of the former with a very pretty St. Valentine party. The home was tastefully decorated with hearts and other schemes, all of which were in keeping with the nature of the event. About thirty guests including a few specially invited ones, enjoyed the delightful evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Schilling will be at home on a ranch about two miles south of the city.
