HOW TO AVOID PNEUMONIA
 We have never heard of a single instance of a cold resulting in pneumonia or other lung trouble when Foley's Honey and Tar has been taken. It not only stops the cough but heals and strengthens the lungs. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered. Dr. C. J. Bishop of Agnew, Mich., writes: "I have used Foley's Honey and Tar in three very severe cases of pneumonia with good results in every case."

SOCIETY

EIGHT ANNUAL BALL

The eight annual ball to be given by the Elks of La Grande on February 22 is going to be a notch better and more elaborate than the former seven according to the amount of work and preparation the Elks are giving it. The Commercial Club is being elaborately decorated today. The best music procurable has been contracted and on Friday evening the Commercial Club auditorium will be the Mecca of all Elks in La Grande and a large number from Baker City. Shortly after midnight dancing will be superseded by a banquet at the Hotel Foley.

MARRIED AT BAKER

This afternoon just before five o'clock, W. H. Weeks of this city was united in marriage to Miss Ethel Lenville of Corvallis, at the home of the bride's sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Patterson, in Baker City.

Only a few relatives witnessed the ceremony, as performed by Rev. M. S. Bush late of Corvallis but now Presbyterian pastor at Baker City.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lenville now residing at Corvallis. She left a large circle of friends in her girlhood city, and it is no prediction to say that she will soon have a large number of intimate friends in her new home. The groom is a conscientious young man of sterling qualities. He is secretary of the Blue Mountain Creamery Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Weeks will be at home immediately after their arrival from Baker City.

The afternoon Kaffee Klatch will meet Friday afternoon with Mrs. L. W. Damon.

The social given at the J. W. Scriber home last evening was largely attended and highly enjoyed by those who went. The house was tastefully decorated so as to be commemorative of the birthday of George Washington. Bunting, and red white and blue paper chains, formed the general scheme of decoration but tiny flags were arranged about the window shades and doorways. A beautiful calla lily in the reception room lent a suggestion of spring time. Several excellent musical selections constituted the program. Piano solos by Misses Elsie Ackles and Ivy Long and vocal solos by C. S. Williams and Geo. L. Cleaver and a violin solo by O. M. Heacock entertained the guests. A real cherry tree was brot into the room and in trying to pin cherries on its limbs while blindfolded, the guests found much amusement. Cherry pies, coffee and nuts constituted the refreshments. Much credit is due to the ladies of the Methodist church who managed the social. Such of the arrangements as could be attended to prior to the guests' arrival, were performed by ladies dressed in "Ye olden times" style.

NEIGHBORHOOD CLUB MEETING

The Neighborhood Club held another of its pleasant meetings yesterday afternoon. No literature having been received on the study course for the new year, the discussion on the new year's course was necessarily postponed until the next regular meeting.

Following is the program of yesterday afternoon:
 Roll Call—Quotations from writers of period.
 Lesson—Leader, Mrs. Geo. Palmer
 Reading—Il Penseroso—Mrs. Turner Oliver
 Reading—L'Allegro—Miss Margaret Anson
 Talk—Milton's Style of Writing—
 Mrs. W. L. Brenholts
 Paper—Dryden and His Style of Writing—
 Mrs. M. V. Mailroy
 Reading—A Song for St. Cecilia's Day—
 Mrs. Stella Ingie
 Magazine Study—Mrs. W. M. Ramsey

AMUSEMENT

TONIGHT

During the many years that "Human Hearts" has been presented in this country, the praise accorded it by newspaper critics and the general public has been universal. There have been no dissenting voices; the verdict of approval has been unanimous. Even rival Managers have graciously acknowledged that man "Hu Hearts" is a mighty good play.

Monday Feb. 25 is the date of the military masquerade ball at the armory hall.

DANCE AT THE RINK

Thursday evening instead of on Wednesday, the Boys Skating rink will give their mid-week skating and dancing party.

Into each life some sorrow must fall; Wise people don't sit down and sawl; Only fools suicide or take to flight; Smart people take rocky Mountain Tea at night.
