DEFAULTER CAPTURED

Pendleton Feb 20—W J Sewell defaulting manager of the Potlatch Lumber Co. has at last been captured and he is now a prisoner in San Francisco. Word to that effect was received last night by Sheriff Taylor and tomorrow morning that official will leave for California to secure his prisoner. While there is always a possibility of error in the identity of a man taken in a distant city, the sheriff feels certain the man in custody is none other than Sewell himself.

SHEARS AND SAWBUCK

Shears and Sawbuck kept a store Such never was before. City folks they wouldn't sell, Couldn't let 'em have a smell. Fetched their money but by jing, Couldn't buy a blessed thing. Couldn't meet 'em face to face And then sell 'em with good grace.

Country trade was what they sought. Folks who'd pay for what they bought 'Fore they saw it hide or tail. They sent catalogues by mail Out to every blessed one Gittin' mail at Possum Run. We sat up at night and read When we'd order been in bed.

Book was 'bout as big as sin Had a lot of pictures in, And a list of merchandise, Every kind and size Giv' in prices that they swore Knocked out every country store. Looned so straight and seemed so true I bit at it and Jim did too.

Jim's my neighbor 'cross the way, Best man ever worked in hay, Just let him top off a stack, Sheds rain like a turtle's back, Pleasure jest to see him work, Never new of Jim to shirk; Swings a scythe like it was play, Love to watch him in the way,

Well, we like a pair of fools Sent off and got some hayin' tools. Jim got harness and a plow, I, a range - I see it now, Dred the thing, it was so light Used it for a torch at night; Throw'd the darn thing in the yard, Use it now for renderin' lard.

'Fore Jim used the plow an hour Found the blame thing wouldn't scour; Tried his harness—broke a tug, Sought for solace in his jug. In the cooler all that night Jim reflected on his plight: In the morning Richard Stout, Hardware merchant, balled him out.

Jim said after that he'd stick, Close as bark to good ol' Dick. Since he left the Possum jail Says he won't buy goods by mail, Says Dick cheaper, anyhow Might have saved some on the plow, On the other goods some more, At his old friend's hardware store.

Jim says, "We can't sell no truck To sich folks as Shears Sawbuck They'll take all our cash away, But won't buy our corn or hay." That seemed pretty strange to me. So I told of Jim I'd see So I wrote to them that night Jist to see if Jim was right.

As't 'em "What they'd pay for oats? Could they use some likely shoats? Had about four tons of hay I could ship 'em right away. Could I furnish Mr. Shears With his family roasin' ears? Also would my frienk Sawbuck Buy some of my garden truck?"

Answer came one summer day, Said they couldn't use our hay, Couldn't use our oats or shoats, Didn't like our billy goats. When they needed truck to eat Bought it down on Water street Sorry, but they must refuse Anything but cash to use."

I sat down an' wrote 'em then; "Hate to trouble you again, But I want to thank you sirs, For your bunch of cockie burrs. If you love your feller man, Do him, good, sirs, when you can While our merchants sweetly sleep Shears and Sawbuck shear your sheep. Anonymous
