INSANE MAN AFFIRMS HE SHOT TYLER

Wallace, Feb. 22.—"It is the heart that moves the hand. I am the man that killed Fred Tyler. Turn all these other fellows loose for I am the man that done the deed."

This was the announcement that startled Judge Woods when a small dark stranger, with long, black hair and a stubby beard was standing up beside Steve Adams, proclaiming himself guilty of the crimes for which Adams is on trial. A commotion followed. Mrs. Adams burst into tears, and Adams himself turned pale. Seized by two officers the dark stranger was hurried out of the room to the sheriff's office. There he said his name was Patrick C. Ryan of Butte; that he had just finished a term in Deer Lodge penitentiary for stealing mutton and after being released had gone to Burke, where Roosevelt's daughter had told him to come to Wallace and take charge of this case. He said if Adams was convicted an earthquake would destroy the Coeur d'Alenes. Ryan will be committed to the asylum. Adams says he does not know the man.

While the defense still conceals its policy, signs have led to the prediction that Adams' attorneys will endeavor to cast doubt on the identification of Tyler's body and will also uphold the theory that Adams was not in the Marble Creek district at the time this murder occurred. Adams is beginning to show some signs of the severe strain and at times appears worried and uneasy. Mrs. Adams has also given signs of nervousness as the state masses its evidence.

RAILWAY EXTENSION IN MEXICO

(Scripps News Association)
Mexico City, Feb. 25.—One mile a day is the rate at which the Cananea and Pacific railway is being constructed. It is occupying the attention of 5000 men and 5000 horses. Railroad construction has got a great flip during the past twelve months and lines are being laid all over the country. Several years will be required to complete the line the Southern Pacific is building to Guadalajara as a number of tunnels will have to be driven through the Sierra Madre mountains. At Guadalajara the road will connect with the Mexican Central and there give a direct route from Tucson and all coast points to this city. There is a great scarcity of horses required for the construction work and all efforts to secure them in this country have been without success.
