CURED OF LUNG TROUBLE

"It is now eleven years since I had a narrow escape from consumption," writes C. O. Floyd, a businessman of Kershaw, S. C. "I had run down in weight to 155 pounds, and coughing was constant, both by day and by night. Finally I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and continued this for about six months, when my cough and lung trouble were entirely gone and I was restored to my normal weight, 170 pounds. Thousands of persons are healed every year. Guaranteed at Newlin drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free."

SOCIETY

The Rebekahs held an enthusiastic meeting last night. Six candidates were received into membership which was followed by a banquet.

At the close of the program dainty refreshments were served and after an enjoyable social interval the guests departed very much elated by the renewal of interest and promise of the brilliant season which is now assured for the musicale.

PASSING OF THE INDIAN

New York, Feb. 26.—From a work on "The Indians of America", published by Heineman today it appears that it has never been definitely determined just what was the greatest number of Indians in America when they were unmoles'ed. Some authorities say the number could not have exceeded a million, but others assert that it could not have been more than 800,000, and still others contend that there were never more than 500,000. At the present time there are about 284,000 members of the red race in the United States. There are Indians in eighteen different states and three territories, exclusive of the Indian Territory. Nearly all the tribes are west of the Mississippi in fact most of them are beyond the Missouri. There are 166 reservations in all. In the Northwestern part of New York there are a out 5000 descendants of the great warrior tribes living on eighteen reservations. Today there are 159,000 Indians who wear citizens dress in whole or in part. There are 70,000 who can read and speak English. There are 28,000 Indian families now living in comfortable modern dwellings. When the Government first began supplying the Indians with houses it often proved a difficult matter to keep the old warriors in them. They would take possession in the best of faith, but the wild nature would invariably break out; they would saddle their horses and go back to their teepees.

OLD STAPLE FIRM WOULD COME TO LA GRANDE

The Jones Bros. Company of Louisville Kentucky, has informed local business men that it will send a representative to La Grande by the first of April to make final arrangements, if possible, for the erection and installation of a modern vinegar, pickle and condiment factory in this city. The most promising phase, aside from the fact that the company is apparently satisfied with this site for a factory, is the fact that the Jones Brothers Company is the most staple and largest vinegar factory in the world. The company is capitalized at $500,000. Its original plant was built at Louisville, and is still operated in that city. A large middle-west factory is located at Canon City, Colorado. Now it wants a factory which will supply the growing trade on the Pacific coast. Representatives of the company have been canvassing the Pacific coast for a site during the past year, and now comes the announcement that they will send a man directly to this city.

If the right sort of inducements are extended to the representative when he arrives, there seems little question but that the company will decide upon La Grande, and should such be the case, the factory would be immediately called upon to supply the demands of a trade that is now firmly established on this coast and growing continually. It would not have to go thru the slow process of building up a reputation, as that reputation is already on a solid footing.

The inducements which the company demands, are not positively specified, but would doubtless be relative to a site. No subscription to stock will be solicited. Should La Grande be fortunate enough to attract the firm, a plant will be installed which will be backed by sufficient capital and of such a capacity of output, that any sized business which might confront it, could be properly handled.

Last year when the Ripley-Oregon Fruit Food Company was organized, the news reached this company in Louisville. A representative was dispatched to this city to buy, if possible, a controlling interest in the supposed plant. On that man's arrival he found the rumor an idle dream, but went back to his company with the recommendations which are now apparently materializing. Immediately after that, the Eastern Oregon Colonizing Company began a correspondence, which culminated in the letter received yesterday, making the announcement as stated.

It behooves La Grande as a unit to join forces in grasping this opportunity of securing the Pacific coast plant of the largest vinegar and pickle manufacturing establishment in the world. Thus would this growing city secure another means toward placing La Grande on the map as the largest, and most widely known, commercially, of any city in Eastern Oregon.

CATARRH PREPARES THE SYSTEM FOR CONSUMPTION

While Catarrh in its first stages usually affects the head, it does not stop there if the trouble is allowed to run on. The contracting of a cold is generally the commencement of the unpleasant symptoms of ringing noises in the ears, nose stopped up, mucus dripping back into the throat, hawking and spitting, etc. The inner skin or mucous membrane of the body becomes inflamed and secretes an unhealthy matter which is absorbed into the blood, and Catarrh becomes a serious and dangerous blood disease. Every day the blood becomes more heavily loaded with these poisonous secretions, and as the poisoned blood constantly passes through the lungs they become diseased, and often Catarrh terminates in Consumption. Sprays, washes, inhalations and such treatment do no real good, because they do not reach the poison-laden blood, where the real trouble lies. The only way to cure Catarrh is to purify and build up the blood. S. S. S. has been proven the remedy best suited for this purpose. It goes down to the very bottom of the trouble and removes every trace of impurity from the circulation, freshens this life stream and, as this healthy blood goes to every nook and corner of the system, Catarrh is driven out and a lasting cure made. The inflamed membranes and tissues heal, the secretions cease, the head is cleared and the entire system renovated and put in good condition by the use of S. S. S. Write for free book which contains valuable information about Catarrh and ask for any special medical advice you desire, without charge.
