PROGRAM CHANGE.

New Films at the Electric Theater Tomorrow Evening.

The regular change of program will take place tomorrow evening. The numbers are all good, but the one which will create the greatest interest is the "Clever Detective." This tells the story of the kidnapping of a little girl and the clever work and hair-breadth escapes of the detective, who finally, with the aid of the child, is able to rescue her from the outlaws and return her safe to her distracted parents. The comic numbers are truly fun-makers, especially the one which is entitled "Between Two Fires." The "Tired Tailor's Dream" is a mechanical wonder. The tailor had an order for a suit for a really bad man, who promised something rich if the garments were not ready for him at a certain time. The tailor dreamed that he various implements of his craft suddenly became animated and of their own free will set to work to make him suit.

Mr. Ferrin will sing the illustrated song, "When Sweetheart Mary Whispered Yes." The sentiment of the song is good and the slides are all hand-colored and pretty. Mr. Bruce will preside at the piano, and it is safe to say that he will be able to entertain the audience with his numerous and timely selections. Mr. Bruce is a performer of ability, and his happy selections and splendid renditions add much to the pleasure of the entertainment at the New Electric theater.
