Current Topic Club.

The Current Topic club met at the home of E. W. Davis, corner First and Main streets, last evening, with Mrs. Mary Mallory, Mrs. A. T. Hill and Miss Ethel Davis as hostesses, assisted by Miss Maud Mallory. The house was beautifully decorated with white Christmas bells, green vines with white plants. The topic under discussion was "The Business Men's Temperance Movement," under the leadership of H. R. Hanna. Messrs. Brenholts, Hodgins, Wright, Cleaver and Judge Crawford gave able speeches and their hearers were thoroughly convinced that the temperance movement was one of the burning questions of the day, and that it will be just a matter of a short time until local option will carry in this state. Mr. Brenholts supplemented his remarks by reading several interesting letters from prominent business men of Walla Walla county, stating that they are well satisfied with conditions as existing there now under local option.

After the talk the remainder of the evening was spent in conversation and a game of finding the guests' names in conundrums. Miss Maud Mallory and Miss Elva Baker of Portland, charmed the audience with vocal solos. A three-course luncheon, consisting of shrimp salad, olives and wafers, block ice cream and macaroons, coffee, was served at small tables. The place cards were small white bells tied with green ribbon carrying out the color scheme of green and white.

The next meeting will be held some time the latter part of January at the home of William Miller in South La Grande, with Mr. Miller as leader. The topic under consideration will be "The Mongolian Race in the United States."
