The city council meets this evening and it should take steps to see that the free delivery system is inaugurated. Congress is now in session and a good, strong resolution addressed direct to our delegation might be the means of the system being inaugurated. We have been entitled to this service for three years, but we do not show enough speed to even get the matter past an inspector's report. An office that does 33 1-3 per cent more business than is required, should have no trouble in securing its rights. To a man up the tree it begins to look as though there was a "nigger" in the brush somewhere and he should be smoked out. The city council and the Commercial club are the proper places for these demands to be jointly made.

Polliticians are remarking on the difference in the local political situation compared to two years ago at this time, when the pot was fairly boiling over. Now everything is quiet with only a rumor now and then that this man or that will come out for a certain office. The only openly avowed candidate that the News-Record has heard of is C. H. Allen, principal of the Flora schools, who was in Enterprise last week and stated he would be a candidate at the primary for the nomination as assessor on the republican ticket.—Enterprise News-Record.

Help the public school. You have an opportunity on Thursday night. The Midland Jubilee singers will appear at the opera house on this date under the auspices of our public school. This company is recognized as one of the leading colored attractions in the United States.

The Medical Journal prints the sage remark that "Mince pie is not injurious if you can digest it." This may also be confidentially stated of lobster a la Newburg, oyster shells, and hydrocyanic acid.—Roseburg News.

The street lights were duly appreciated during the early hours last night.

SWEETNESS DRAWN OUT.

Ride Rides Horse While the Groom Walks.

The groom trudging over 2000 miles, leading the way for his bride, who will follow on horseback, stopping at intervals in towns and cities on the line of march where the head of the family will give athletic exhibitions, is the substance of the novel honeymoon trip which Carl Raupp, the Tacoma walker and wrestler, has mapped out.

Raupp says that he is going to complete his "hike" to Chicago in company with Oscar Holland. After he has arrived there he says that he will woo his fiancée, a Tacoma maid, to come by the earliest train.

The wedding will follow and when nature begins to display the glories of summer the return trip will be begun. The groom will tramp beside the mount of his blushing bride, and thus by easy stages they will return to their home city, making one of the most novel and unique honeymoon trips ever accomplished.

Raupp and Holland are still in Spokane, where they are temporarily impeded by lack of funds. Just how they are going to secure enough funds to make their living they are puzzled to discover, but Raupp declares that he will push on and that he will make the world open its eyes.

"OREGON, MY OREGON."

The chief of subjects, small and great, To me is my adopted state.

I'll sing her praises loud and long, In this, mine humble, halting song.

Of all the states in this great land, Old Oregon will lead the band, Her climate seems to me just right, While other places are a fright.

Her scenery, too, inspiring seems, Like misty vistas of our dreams, Her towering mountains rise sublime, (Mt. Hood resembles "Father Time.")

In many things she takes the lead, And progress seems to be her creed; And people coming find content, Call life elsewhere but ill spent.

For heat we have just lots of wood, We wouldn't change it if we could, In summer we've old ocean's breeze, Which we enjoy in perfect ease.

We've fruit and other things galore— How can a mortal wish for more? And all along her mountains steep, Are wandering herds of goats and sheep.

Along her fertile valleys wide The farmers dwell in joy and pride, Her mines have furnished wealth in store,

And yet they'll furnish millions more, And in the education line, We've colleges and schools divine, And if you travel the whole world over,

No better place will you discover.

To people in less favored climes: Come out and share in our good times, And we will say to great and small, "Dear friends, come on, there's room for all."

(The above excellent story in rhyme is contributed to the Gazette by Clara DeLay, a little girl of the Corvallis grammar school.)—Corvallis Gazette.

FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE

Cures Kidney and Bladder Diseases in Every Form—Many People Have Kidney Trouble and Do Not Know It.

HOW TO FIND OUT.

It is the function of the kidneys to filter and purify the blood which is constantly passing through them.

When the kidneys are out of order the other organs are affected immediately and you may have symptoms of heart trouble, stomach and liver trouble, and other ailments, which are all owing to the kidneys being weak and out of order.

If you are sick Foley's Kidney Cure will strengthen and build up the worn out tissues of the kidneys so they will act properly and the symptoms of weakness, heart, stomach and liver trouble will disappear and you will be restored to perfect health.

How to Tell if You Have Kidney Trouble. You can easily determine if your kidneys are out of order by setting aside for 24 hours a bottle of the urine passed upon arising. If upon examination it is cloudy or milky or has a brick-dust sediment or small particles float about in it, your kidneys are diseased and Foley's Kidney Cure should be taken at once. Foley's Kidney Cure is pleasant to take and acts directly upon the parts affected and you begin to feel better at once.

It corrects slight disorders in a few days and it has cured many obstinate cases after other treatment had failed.

Doctors Said He Would Not Live. Peter Frey, of Woodruff, Pa., writes "After doctoring for two years with the best physicians in Waynesburg, and still getting worse, the doctors advised me if I had any business to attend to I had better attend to it at once, as I could not possibly live another month, as there was no cure for me. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended to me by a friend, and I immediately sent my son to the store for it and after taking three bottles I began to get better and continued to improve until I was entirely well."
