BODY ARRIVES.

Former La Grande Fireman Killed in Montana.
The body of Walter Hetrick arrived in this city this morning from Lyma, Mont., and taken to the Henry & Carr undertaking parlors, where it will be prepared for burial and sent to Summerville tomorrow. The deceased was killed in a railroad accident at Lyma, Mont., last Thursday. In some manner he was caught between the cars and his neck broken. The deceased has a wife, who accompanied the remains to this city and went on to Summerville, where her parents reside. His parents live near Wallowa. The deceased was formerly a member of the local order of B. of L. E. & E. in this city, but recently transferred to the order at Lyma. He is well known in this city, as for several years he ran out of this city. The funeral will take place in Summerville tomorrow.

Croup

When a child wakes up in the middle of the night with a severe attack of croup as frequently happens, no time should be lost in experimenting with remedies of a doubtful value. Prompt action is often necessary to save life.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

has never been known to fail in any case and it has been in use for over one-third of a century. There is none better. It can be depended upon. Why experiment? It is pleasant to take and contains no harmful drug. Price, 5 cents; large size, 50 cents.
