

THEATRICAL ATTRACTIONS

"The Man of the Hour" Notes.

George Broadhurst's latest and greatest efforts, "The Man of the Hour," which William A. Brady and Joseph R. Grismer will present here soon, is said to be playing to capacity houses in every city it has visited.

Wm. A. Brady and Joseph R. Grismer's production of George Broadhurst's latest efforts, "The Man of the Hour," with exceptional strong company and complete scenic production, will be the attraction at the Steward January 21.

The play has been the attraction at the Savoy theater, New York, since last December, and from all accounts it will remain there for several years to come.

"Devil's Auction" Company. One of the most prominent features of Chas. H. Yale's "Everlasting Devil's Auction" and, by the way, a feature that is not now presented by any other spectacular organization, is the transformation scene.

In former years a spectacular performance was not considered complete without its final scene of transformation, and fortunes, as in the case of the original "Black Crook," "The

The Boss and Making a "Mayor," Act I, in "The Man of the Hour."

White Fawn," and later David Henderson's show-pieces, were spent in presenting these magnificent specimens of the scenic painters' art.

Of late years the promoters of spectacle outside of Mr. Yale, have discarded these effective finales to their performances, possibly to save what they consider an unnecessary expense. In any event, the scene has been cut out in the majority of fairy productions, with the exception of the "Devil's Auction." Manager Yale, however, has each year offered his patrons a beautiful series of stage pictures, and in this, the 26th edition, promises a radical change from anything hitherto attempted in this line.

The new transformation is entitled "Amor" (love) and is claimed to be one of if not the handsomest mis-en-scenes ever presented. Steward's opera house Friday, January 17.

ANOTHER WEISER TEAM.

La Grande Boy Figures in Reorganization of Strong Baseball Squad.

A Weiser dispatch to the Capital News states that unless all signs fail, Weiser will have another ball team this year that will warm things up along the line before the season closes and one that will keep the fans in other towns on the uneasy seat. Already the baseball fever has begun to break out and already preparations are being completed to get matters well under way long before the season opens.

At an enthusiastic meeting held at the Vendome, which was largely attended, baseballism was discussed in all its phases and plans outlined for the season's work. One thing is certain, the people and players may well expect something much better this year than last, as everything will be managed along strict business lines, thus avoiding all dissatisfaction as the season closes.

At the meeting Wallace Childers acted as president, protom, and Frank Gribben, secretary. It is likely that a number of last season's players will be signed up, among them being Wallace Childers, Tom Higgins and Meats, the clever catcher, who is now in California. A California pitcher, highly recommended by Walter Johnson will probably also be secured.

Baseball enthusiasts in southern Idaho and eastern Oregon may well expect something will be doing in Weiser before the season comes to a close.

WILL GRILL WALL STREET.

New "Jeff" Davis Will Attack Money Plutocrats of Money Street.

New York, Jan. 15.—United States Senator Jefferson Davis, the Arkansas solon, who is seeking to outdo Elihan as the real welder of a red-hot pitchfork, will be one of the principal speakers at the meeting of the New York Progressive Democratic league tomorrow night. Senator Davis has promised to give the Wall street "plutes" a thorough roasting on his verbal gridiron and will let loose some fireworks that will make his first speech in the senate a pale and innocuous affair by comparison. Augustus Thomas, the playwright, will preside over the demonstration, which will be held in Cooper Union. The principal purpose of the meeting is to ratify W. J. Bryan for the presidency. Mayor Tom L. Johnson of Cleveland, will also be among the speakers.

Notice of Final Settlement.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has filed his final account as administrator of the estate of George McFatrige, deceased, and the county court of the state of Oregon for Union county, has fixed Tuesday, the 4th day of February, 1908, at 10 o'clock a. m., as the time, and the court house at La Grande, Union county, Oregon, as the place for the hearing of any and all objections to said account and the final settlement thereof and the distribution of said estate. Dated at La Grande, Oregon, this 2nd day of January, 1908.

B. L. LEAVITT, Administrator of the Estate of George McFatrige, Deceased, COCHRAN & COCHRAN, Attorneys for Administrator. DJ4-11-18-25-D1

Sunday School Expert.

James Edmonds, the Sunday school expert, will hold conferences with Sunday school workers of this city at the Baptist church, corner Sixth and Q streets at 7:30 this evening, and also at 2:30 and 7:30 tomorrow afternoon and evening. The subject for this evening is, "The Building of a Sunday School." The address will be replete with stimulating and practical suggestions to superintendents and teachers. Mr. Edmonds is widely known and ranks first among the men of his profession. He always instructs, entertains, profits. Hear him tonight. W. H. GIBSON.

The Blue Mountain Cough Syrup is not a new mixture for a cough. It is an old standby for coughs, colds, la grippe, whooping cough and sore throat. For sale by Red Cross drug store.
