

THEATRICAL ATTRACTIONS

Tonight's Attraction.

The much talked of Broadhurst play, "The Man of the Hour," under the direction of William A. Brady and Joseph R. Grismer, is to be presented for the first time in this city tonight. According to all reports received from New York and Chicago in which the play has been presented, the consensus of opinions appear to be that it is a play of exceptional strength, telling forcibly a powerful dramatic story. While Mr. Broadhurst has taken for his central theme the political situation as it exists in nearly every city in the country where

TELEPHONE MEETING

Shareholders in the Independent Home Telephone company of Union and Wallowa counties, will meet this evening at the company's office in this city, in annual meeting, for the purpose of electing a full slate of officers for the coming year.

There will be little business transacted at this meeting except to elect the officers and directors. It is planned to have the new directors meet tomorrow some time, and at this meeting the real business of the company will be transacted.

Some extensive improvement is planned and it is expected the new directorate will formulate these plans and take immediate steps to carry them out.

MANAGERS MEET TONIGHT

The initial meeting of the new board of managers of the La Grande Commercial club will be held this evening, commencing at 7 o'clock. The early hour is set to allow the members opportunity to attend the opera house attraction.

President-elect Crawford, who returned last night from Wallowa county, is desirous of getting down to work immediately and although the session tonight may not be a midnight one, he hopes to get an eye on the lay of the land, and it is possible that an adjourned meeting will be held in the near future.

Secretary Webb has been notified to inform all the new members, and a full attendance will doubtlessly be resultant. The new board and officers of the club will qualify at tonight's meeting.

ELECT OLD OFFICERS

The mountain streams of Union county are to be stocked along more extended lines the coming season than they have ever been, according to plans formulated last night at a meeting of the Eastern Oregon Fish & Game association.

Much has been done for local line and pole artists in the past, and the announcement of still greater stream stocking, comes as a bit of pleasing news.

The old slate of officers was re-elected at the meeting in the Commercial club last night. These will serve the ensuing year and will oversee the bringing of fry to La Grande and superintend its distribution to the many streams. The officers are: H. J. Hockenberry, president; A. V. Andrews, vice-president; George L. Cleaver, secretary; C. T. Bacon, treasurer.
