BUSTER'S BIG SMILE

Buster, the little philosopher and child of nature, heartily favors his sister's sweetheart.

Such is the situation when the committee of great men, genuine pillars in the party, arrive at the Buster Brown mansion to notify the merchant that they propose to nominate him for the highest office in the town—mayor of Brownville.

Buster, in his father's absence, receives the committee so wonderfully and made so fine a speech, full of pathos and shrewdness, that the great men are completely won over to the boy. Buster, with Madonna-like eyes and a modest, appealing look, sets forth the noble qualities of the young man who aspires to his sister's hand so eloquently, that the committee promises to make him the candidate for mayor.

The story of the reception gets out. Buster's pictures are displayed in the windows, and the good old Dutch town of Brownville rings with approval at the committee's choice. The campaign now opens with a hurrah. Ginger eloquence and fireworks make the old town as lively as a Christmas candy shop and Buster Brown's sister's young man is elected by a rousing majority. Results: Every one rejoices. Buster Brown is praised and petted. His big little heart swells with emotion, and tears are in his eyes when he winks at Tige. A grand family reunion follows and they feed Tige on porterhouse steak for a month.

The part Buster Brown is taken by a little 32-inch chap known as Master Reed, who has attained national fame. He is considered a wonder in his impersonation of Buster Brown, as Mr. Outcall has created him in the Sunday comic supplement. In the support of Master Reed, Edwin Lamar, the great English animal impersonator will be seen as "Tige," while Miss Alice Mortlock the stage's most natural child impersonator will appear as "Mary Jane." The supporting company, the largest and most carefully selected cast that this mirth-provoking musical comedy has enjoyed. New scenery and beautiful costumes together with full 20 new musical numbers that are really worth whistling, make "Buster Brown" a welcome visitor and one that will be enjoyed by all ages and all eyes. At the Steward soon.

Sympathizing With Columbia.

Columbia's misfortune in being obliged to dispense with her football team was productive of much sympathy from the Cornell Widow. One of her sob might not be inappropriate:

At Columbia, A. D. 1999.

"Our nitting team won the trophy again this year," remarked the oche, proudly pointing to the crocheted bed-kwilt hanging on the wall.

"'Tis tru," answered the venerable president, "but only at the terrific cost of three of our men pricking their fingers." And bursting into tears, he sat down and wrote a nu ptee for reform in athletics.—From "Humorous College Journalism," in the Bohemian.

The Jumping Off Place.

"Consumption had me in its grasp; and I had almost reached the jumping off place when I was advised to try Dr. King's New Discovery, and I want to say right now, it saved my life. Improvement began with the first bottle, and after taking one dozen bottles I was a well and happy man again," says George Moore, of Grimesland, N. C. As a remedy for coughs and colds and healer of weak, sore lungs and for preventing pneumonia New Discovery is supreme. 50c and $1 at the Newlin Drug Co.'s drug store. Trial bottle free.

Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the Farmers & Traders' National bank will be held at their banking house on Tuesday, February 11, 1908, between the hours of 10 a. m. and 12 m., of said day, to elect a board of five directors to serve for the ensuing year and for the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting.
Dated January 10, 1908.

FOLEY'S HONEY and TAR CURES Coughs and Colds PREVENTS Pneumonia and Consumption

Foley's Honey and Tar not only stops the cough, but heals and strengthens the lungs and prevents serious results from a cold.

There is no danger of Pneumonia, Consumption or other serious lung trouble if Foley's Honey and Tar is taken, as it will cure the most stubborn coughs—the dangerous kind that settles on the lungs and may develop into pneumonia over night.

If you have a cough or cold do not risk Pneumonia when Foley's Honey and Tar will cure you quickly and strengthen your lungs.

Remember the name—Foley's Honey and Tar—and refuse any substitute offered. Do not take chances with some unknown preparation that costs you the same when you can get Foley's Honey and Tar, that costs you no more and is safe and certain in results. Contains no opiates.

Cured After Physicians Said He Had Consumption.

E. H. Jones, Pastor M. E. Church, Grove, Md., writes: "About seven or eight years ago I had a very severe cold which physicians said was very near pneumonia, and which they afterwards pronounced consumption. Through a friend I was induced to try a sample of Foley's Honey and Tar, which gave me so much relief that I bought some of the regular size. Two or three bottles cured me of what the physicians called consumption, and I have never had any trouble with my throat or lungs since that time."

Three sizes—25c, 50c, $1.00.
The 50 cent size contains two and one-half times as much as the small size and the $1.00 bottle almost six times as much.
