SKATING NOT PERMITTED

In View of the fact that I desire to cut and house ice on my pond west of the city, known generally as "Dutch Pond" for use as commercial ice, I hereby forbid anyone from skating on the same and all trespassing will be prosecuted.

YOUR WORK

Is what we want. We don't call on you one week for it and tell you the next we cannot do it for you. We want it now, and all the time. We do not think it necessary at this time to say anything about the class of work we turn out. The fact that we have been in the LAUNDRY business for twelve years in La Grande we think sufficient evidence that our work is satisfactory. Try it.

MORE BEES 'A BUZZIN'

If the democrats really want to elect the next president, why not select a candidate who represents something? says the Paterson (N. J.) Evening News. In the person of ex-Governor William L. Douglas, the great shoe manufacturer of Brockton, Mass., the democracy would find an ideal candidate. Mr. Douglas is a self-made man. He has worked up from the shoemaker's bench to the governor's chair. He can sympathize with labor. He is the head of a great industry and is a capitalist and knows the needs of business and industry. He is a banker and understands the currency question. He is a manufacturer and knows the tariff situation. He is a constructive statesman, as witness the wise legislation of Massachusetts in relation to savings banks and life insurance. He is not identified with the factions that have rent the democratic party. He carried the rock-ribbed republican state of Massachusetts by a phenomenal majority. He would reunite the democracy and lead it to victory. He has no past political record like Bryan's. He would make a safe and sane candidate; that is, if he could be induced to take the nomination. The trusts and grafters would not like him, but the great body of the common people, the business men and the farmers would elect him. The democracy are in the political wilderness. If William L. Douglas would take the nomination, he would be the political Moses that will lead them to the promised land of victory at the polls next November.

Again in the City.

Now you have the opportunity to consult Dr. W. H. Keating, the expert eyesight specialist of Salt Lake, Utah, if you have defective eyesight or improperly fitted glasses. The doctor is not a stranger and can furnish many references in La Grande, as he has visited here for the past five years and will visit here regularly in the future every three months. The doctor grinds and makes every pair of glasses he fits himself, so you will be sure to get a perfect fit and carries the latest instruments for making a thorough examination of the eye. A $1000 reward will be paid for any case of defective sight not totally blind which he cannot improve with his special ground lenses. Don't fail to consult him if you have defective eyesight or improperly fitted glasses. Now at the Sommer hotel, Room 1. Office hours 9 till 12 a. m., and 1 till 7 p. m.

A Witty President.

A witticism was attributed the other day in Washington to the president. A young man, the story goes, during a call at the white house, told the president that he had been married a year before and was already the father of a boy. "I congratulate you," said the president. "I am sure you find it pleasanter to be a loving sire than a sighing lover."
