"TIGE" IN BUSTER BROWN

With the "Buster Brown" company which comes to the Steward on February 13, we are promised among other improvements in the cast, the best animal impersonator who has ever assayed to play the difficult part of "Tige," Buster Brown's faithful canine companion. The advance representative, while mentioning the many improvements in the cast this season, said: "Edwin Lamar, a man who has made himself famous playing dog, is playing the part of 'Tige.' 'Buster Brown' without 'Tige' would be like 'home without a mother.' Mr. Lamar certainly knows dogs. His reconstruction of Tige's quizzical countenance is a masterpiece in paint, paper mache and canvas. For good amiability, curiosity, even that peculiarly subtle and lithe 'doggy' emotion called humor is fitted clearly and easily across his canine mask. He wags his tail, licks his chops, tracks footprints with tremendous energy, worries the tramp's boots and just plays dog.

There are a great many people in the audience who wait to see him assume his expression of pleasant preoccupation, which is peculiar to the dog, when he stretches out his neck, crooks his hind leg or left ear.

"Buster Brown" is said to be greatly improved since last season, and that the cast is the best yet seen in the mirth-provoking musical comedy. The specialties and musical numbers are said to be all new, while the scenery and costumes are said to be a pleasant surprise. No doubt "Buster" will enjoy his usual big business here, and those who attend will enjoy the performance.

Aid From D. & R. G.

The executive officers of the board of control of the 16th National Irrigation congress which meets at Albuquerque, N. M., the coming fall, have been in communication with the passenger and freight traffic officials of the Denver & Rio Grande Railway system and have been assured by that company that most favorable excursion rates from Utah, Colorado and New Mexico points will be announced in due season. The railway company will also ship free of charge to exhibitors at the congress and Interstate Industrial exposition which will be held in connection with the congress, all exhibits from points in San Juan county, New Mexico, and from southern Colorado. Another conference is to be had with the officials of the company relative to exhibits from Utah and it is confidently believed the company will also aid materially in advertising the congress and will distribute all advertising matter sent to it for that purpose by the board of control, advantage of which liberal offer is already being taken.
