SHORT COURSE AT THE O. A. C.

The winter short courses at the Oregon Agricultural college have been very successful. Over one hundred students were registered in the different courses, as follows:

General agriculture, 21; dairying, 27; horticulture, 12; mechanics, 10; household economy, 27; total, 107.

Some 15 counties in the state are represented in the attendance. Several came from the state of Washington, one each from British Columbia, Kansas and New Jersey. Each afternoon four lectures were given by different members of the agricultural staff. In addition, prominent men of the state engaged in different lines of agriculture, addressed those in attendance on the general agricultural course. M. O. Lowndale, spoke on "The Old Orchard"; Ferd Goner, on "The Drainage"; W. K. Newell and H. M. Williamson on "Horticulture"; J. R. Shepard on "Swine Raising"; Hon. J. W. Bailey on "Dairying"; Mrs. Clara H. Waldo, lecturer of the Oregon State Grange, on "Women's Work on the Farm"; Mrs. Austin T. Buxton, on the "Farm Home"; E. H. Shepard, editor of Better Fruit, on horticultural topics.

The subjects of animal husbandry, field crops, bacteriology, botany, plant diseases, chemistry, county roads, poultry keeping were treated by members of the faculty.

During the forenoons the students did practical work in the shops, in the dairy and in the orchard, and the women had lecture and demonstration work in cooking and sewing in Waldo hall.

It is planned to make these courses of increasing usefulness to the people of the state.

Athlete Coming to Oregon.

Ralph Dimmick, one of the most prominent athletes at Whitman college, has left that institution to enter school at the University of Oregon, according to the students, says the Walla Walla Bulletin. His reason for changing are not known. If the one-year rule is agreed upon by the colleges in the conference which open tomorrow, Dimmick will be unable to take part in athletics next year. Dimmick was captain of the Whitman football team during the past season, and was, with Moores, of Oregon, mentioned by Walter Camp, in his football review, of the season.
