A Lost Boy.

About last May Frank E. Westcott worked for some lumbering company in this city or vicinity. He left here for Hellen, Wash., and his father, who resides at Fairton, N. J., has heard nothing from him since. He generally took active work in church matters, and any information will be gladly received by his father, or Rev. C. E. Deal of this city.

The new edition of the ever popular musical comedy, "Buster Brown," is announced for the Steward on February 18, with Master Reed as "Buster." Going to Pullman.

C. W. Nessly of Prosser, who owns considerable property at this place, intends to build a fine residence on the southeast corner of his 60-acre tract on Military hill and will come here to reside. He has platted his tract and already has sold three five-acre tracts. On the south side of the tract near where he will build his house he intends to give every other lot away to people who will build a house upon it.

Mr. Nessly is a valuable citizen in any community and has done much towards advancing Prosser. He started the fruit growing in the Grande Ronde valley that has since grown into a great industry. He planted the first orchard of marketable apples and divided his farm into small tracts. Since that time thousands of acres of orchard have been planted and hundreds of cars of apples are shipped yearly from that point.—Pullman Tribune.

JUST ONCE IN A WHILE.

Just once in a while if we'd lay down our load
Of worry and work by the side of the road,
And a bit of the love that we're feeling expend
On sister or brother, on parent or friend,
In words that would tell them their nearness makes light
The path which alone we would grope through the night;
How oft we'd be blessed with an answering smile,
If we'd think to be thoughtful just once in a while.

Better Than Spanking.

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W, Notre Dame, Ind., will send free to any mother her successful instructions. Send no money, but write her today if your children trouble in this way. Don't blame the child, the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.

It is by far the best healing salve I have ever found." Heals burns, sores, ulcers, fever sores, eczema and piles. 25c a Newlin Drug Co.'s drug store.
