SKATING NOT PERMITTED

In View of the fact that I desire to cut and house ice on my pond west of the city, known generally as "Dutch Pond" for use as commercial ice, I hereby forbid anyone from skating on the same and all trespassing will be prosecuted.

YOUR WORK

Is what we want. We don't call on you one week for it and tell you the next we cannot do it for you. We want it now, and all the time. We do not think it necessary at this time to say anything about the class of work we turn out. The fact that we have been in the LAUNDRY business for twelve years in La Grande we think sufficient evidence that our work is satisfactory. Try it.

A GRAND EXCURSION AND ITS MAIN OBJECT

Portland, Feb. 10.—(Special correspondence.)—The great "Inland Empire" excursion, under the auspices of the Spokane chamber of commerce and Walla Walla Commercial club, spent Saturday in Portland, and were received with a heartiness and cordiality seldom witnessed.

There were acres of automobiles and carriages at the station when the party arrived at 11 o'clock, but before that they had been met by a committee of representative citizens, led by the governor of Oregon and the mayor of Portland, who joined the train some 40 miles out of the city. The procession from the depot uptown was a remarkable sight—in fact, long before the last vehicle had left the station others were well out in the residence district, as it required 20 minutes to get the entire party under way. During all this time the bands played and the people cheered. There were some bright, short, crisp talks at the luncheon, with more extended speeches at the dinner.

This great excursion and the entertainment at Portland shows what can be accomplished by organization. Two prosperous commercial bodies of the state of Washington were received by the largest organization of its kind in the state, the Portland Commercial club. All the advertisements in the local papers welcomed the guests, there were thousands of cards in the show windows of the stores, reading "Portland welcomes her guests from the Inland Empire," "Spokane and Walla Walla do things right." The Inland Empire makes Portland THE wheat port of the Pacific," etc. It was a happy and successful day. These two hundred and twenty excursionists are now in California at work getting people there interested in the Pacific northwestern country.

Seventy-nine organizations are now included in the Oregon Development league, the latest being the Oak Grove Improvement association, and all the active ones are working to secure new people. The $30 rate from Winnipeg, St. Paul, Kansas City, and all the middle west is good on all railroads from March 1 to April 30, with proportionate rate from every station in the United States and Canada. Every letter that goes out of Oregon ought to make mention of this and the fact that the low fare applies to Ashland, Salem, Baker City, Astoria, or any other point in Oregon. Just as it does to Portland, but people must ask for tickets to the point desired when they buy them.

The week beginning September 21 will see the greatest livestock and race meeting at Portland that has been held in this city since the Lewis & Clark exposition in 1905. The gathering here last week, participated in by the Oregon Pure Bred Livestock association and the North Pacific Fair association, brought livestock men from all over the country, closing with a banquet at the Portland Commercial club.

SHIP BODY EAST TONIGHT

In accordance with telegraphic instructions received this morning by George E. Goode, proprietor of the Foley house, the remains of George Neubert will be shipped to Knoxville, Tenn., this evening.

His parents, who live about five miles from Knoxville, were notified of their son's sudden demise last Saturday afternoon and immediately instructed La Grande friends of the deceased to ship the remains home.

The news of his death was, of course, a shock to his relatives, as it was to his many friends in this city. Mrs. Kate Neigh Kirschner of this city, an aunt of the deceased, is the only relative in La Grande.
