CHAMBERS MAKES REPLY

STATES HE MAY HAVE BEEN A LITTLE HASTY.

While Not Claiming to Be a George Washington, He Resents Commissioner Brown's Allusion to His Pre-Election Statements—Is Not in Favor of the County Purchase of Road Making Machinery.

Cove, Ore., Feb. 11, 1908.

Editor Observer:

Please allow me space to answer Mr. Brown's cantankerous letter. First, he defies me to show where the court has misappropriated a dollar of the county money. I think they spent money wrongfully when they bought that machine, and also when they built that one-fourth mile of macadam road, as one quarter mile a year is all they can build and make the other improvements, and at that lick it would take 20 years to build five miles and of what benefit would that be to the taxpayers of Union county? Besides, you wouldn't have run out of your general road funds and have had to draw on the district funds to help you out, so I think you spent near $5,000 that could have been spent to a better advantage in building bridges, and I believe that 95 per cent of the taxpayers will bear me out in the statement. Next, in regard to the two salaries. I may have been a little hasty, but I will explain: It has been reported that the court laid out the county roads in three districts and each member of the board acts as roadmaster of that district, in place of a county roadmaster. This may or may not be so. Mr. Brown can explain.

Next, I was at the Harris bridge when Mr. Campbell was at work on it, but I never approved of the work being done, neither did I disapprove of it. But, I asked Mr. Campbell if it would be safe for me to cross my engine after he was done. He said "No," and I hauled 40 acres of grain a mile across the river to thresh it.

Next, I think $1300 is a big difference to pay between two machines of the same size, built for the same purpose.

Next, He wants to know, why I wanted to file my kick on the eve of election. God bless you, Mr. Brown, don't you know that we elect a county commissioner next June, and by the Eternal Gods we want to make our improvement, as the best is none too good!

Next, Mr. Brown said I am a dirty political liar, and asks others not to believe what I say just before election. In reply I will say I am no George Washington, and still I am no stranger in Union county, and I believe my word will bring as much on the market as Mr. Brown's. That kind of language may help Mr. Brown's feelings, but it wouldn't add any friends to his list, and I know it will not hurt me, and I am glad I don't have to use such terms to express my thoughts. And I further believe I have a right to ask the court questions and receive a decent answer.
