SKATING NOT PERMITTED

In View of the fact that I desire to cut and house ice on my pond west of the city, known generally as "Dutch Pond" for use as commercial ice, I hereby forbid anyone from skating on the same and all trespassing will be prosecuted.

YOUR WORK

Is what we want. We don't call on you one week for it and tell you the next we cannot do it for you. We want it now, and all the time. We do not think it necessary at this time to say anything about the class of work we turn out. The fact that we have been in the LAUNDRY business for twelve years in La Grande we think sufficient evidence that our work is satisfactory. Try it.

ROSE SHOW PLANS MADE

Portland, Ore., Feb. 13.—(Special.)—Portland's great annual institution, the Rose festival, which was inaugurated last June under such auspicious circumstances, will, this coming June, be consummated on a scale so broad and grand that it will have a general appeal to the whole state of Oregon and an individual appeal to every community in the commonwealth. The grand jubilee, which will be one round of pleasure for the whole week beginning Monday, June 1, and ending in a blaze of glory the following Saturday night, is not for Portland or Portland people alone.

One of its most spectacular and brilliant features is to be the magnificent street pageant. This is a competitive event open to all cities and towns of Oregon outside of the Rose City. There will be grand prizes, the capital prize being a princely sum in cash with a number of costly souvenirs and other trophies of great value and beauty.

Up to the present time about 20 cities and towns of Oregon have been heard from, each showing great interest in the special state parade, and several of these towns, through their business organizations and "boosting" clubs have sent representatives to this city to confer with the festival management with reference to character of the floats which will make the most effective showing for their communities.

Several of the out of town commercial bodies, including representatives from Astoria, Eugene, Salem, Hood River, Pendleton and others are busy with arrangements for the construction of their floats, each of which will be typical of the leading industry of the town entering it. For instance, The Astoria float will represent a huge Royal Chinook salmon, that of Hood River, a mammoth red-cheeked apple, and so on, there being so vast a diversification of industries in the different parts of the state that the parade of floats as a whole will be one of the greatest educational features ever attempted in a civic demonstration on the Pacific coast.

The railroads of Oregon, and the whole west in fact, are planning to give special reduced rates on all lines good for the whole week of the Festival. Special low rates from Portland to all points in Oregon. Get into the public eye.

Every town in Oregon is invited to enter some characteristic float in the "All Oregon" parade, and the Festival association invites correspondence with cities and towns, large and small in this all important matter.

Brainard for Whitman.

Whitman College, Walla Walla, Feb. 12.—Whitman will be represented in the Northwest Intercollegiate Oratorical contest this year by Paul P. Brainard, a junior, he being chosen at the local contest last week. Brainard is from Payette, Idaho, and spoke upon a subject which vitally concerns his own state—Mormonism, the title of his oration being "The Modern Menace." His oration was one of the finest order. Miss Madge Fowler, a senior, took second place, with her oration, "The Call From the Orient," a plea for Korea. The contest was made especially interesting by the excellent oration of a Chinese student, William Lee, who spoke upon "The Awakening of China."
