Money Supports the Home

and it needs a steady influx of it to maintain the household and keep it going. To be sure of that steady flow of money, it is the best plan to bank the savings so that you will know where to reach them in time of need. For "rainy days" come to the thriftiest of us at times, and it is well for us if they find us prepared. Bank your surplus cash with us now, and you will have the pleasure of knowing that it is not only secure, but earning good interest.

(Union Republican.)

F. M. Housh returned from Cove Tuesday. He has been trying the efficacy of prayer as a rain or thaw producer in the Cove section, but as yet his supplications seem unheard. An ungodly Covette suggests that he try giant powder.

There is a movement on foot for the establishment of a cannery at Union, and it would seem that there is a fair chance for the success of the project. It is a most deserving enterprise and it is to be hoped that it may receive the endorsement of our people.

(Union Scout.)

R. A. Marr arrived in town Friday on No. 1 from the Malheur oil fields.

Miss Iva Minnick is still quite ill from the effects of the measles.

Commercial Club at Pilot Rock.
Evidences of Pilot Rock's awakening are being manifested every day and before very long the whole world will know that the old stage station is no longer a stage station, but a live, hustling and decidedly on the map. The latest move in the line of development and progress was the forming of a temporary organization Wednesday evening of a Commercial association. Douglas Belts was made chairman of the meeting and O. T. Carnes, secretary. Committees were appointed and the organization will be made a permanent one next Wednesday night.

The association is to be modeled after the one in Pendleton and it is desired that the two work in harmony for the development of the entire county.

Mayor L. E. Roy, Postmaster Henry Casteel and Henry G. Harrison, the merchant, were appointed a committee of three to solicit members for the club.

Presiding Elder J. D. Gillilan will occupy the pulpit at the local M. E. church next Sunday morning and evening. The subject of his discourse in the evening will be "Abraham Lincoln and His Work."

The Book Review.

Frank Baum, of "The Wizard of Oz" fame, has published a new book for the little girls, especially the Dorothys. The book is called Ozma of Oz, and tells more about Dorothy and the scarecrow, the tin woodman, and also about some new characters, the hungry tiger, the Nome king, Tiktok, and the yellow hen.

This last book of Mr. Baum's is quite as "Ozy" as the others, and will prove fascinating to the little folks.

The brass bowl, has been on the retailers' shelves for some time and is the best thing yet written by Louis Joseph Vance. It is a good story and one finds it hard to refrain from turning to the end to see "how it comes out," and were we not accustomed to having books end pleasantly, one might be tempted to not finish the story. The villain, an extremely nery one, by the way, has the upper hand almost too often. But the brass bowl hides the diamonds from "Handsome Dan," and—the Girl in Grey marries the other Handsome Dan.

The Jumping Off Place.

"Consumption had me in its grasp; and I had almost reached the jumping off place when I was advised to try Dr. King's New Discovery, and I want to say right now, it saved my life. Improvement began with the first bottle, and after taking one dozen bottles I was a well and happy man again," says George Moore, of Grimesland, N. C. As a remedy for coughs and colds and healer of weak, sore lungs and for preventing pneumonia New Discovery is supreme. 50c and $1 at the Newlin Drug Co.'s drug store. Trial bottle free.
