MUCH WORK IS IN SIGHT PAY DAY ONCE MORE

While the demand for railroad laborers at the present time is not as brisk as it might be, indications for work during the coming summer are bright, and in a short time much new railroad work is expected to be started, relates the Baker City Herald.

Work on the north coast road is expected to start up on an extensive scale within the next two months. The Elgin extension of the O. R. & N. and the Huntington extension of the Oregon Short Line are all expected to start up in a short time together with the Lewiston and Riparia branches of the O. R. & N., and this will probably clean up the labor market and leave a shortage of men.

The camps along the Milwaukee road between Spokane and Missoula are said to be practically filled, although there are some vacancies still open.

There are few American laborers now idle in Spokane at the present time. The American is generally preferred in the camps, as they do much better work. Austrians are said to give a great deal of trouble and for this reason few contractors will employ them unless there is a shortage of men.

In the downtown section of the city there are many foreigners out of work, but it is claimed that many of these do not desire work at the present time, preferring to wait until spring when outdoor work will be much easier.

Common laborers in construction camps are now being paid $2 and $2.50 per day which is 75 cents less than was being paid for the same class of work six months ago. With the opening up of work in the spring it is believed that the contractors will be compelled to secure men.

There is reported to be very little demand for help of any kind in Spokane, and there are generally several applicants for every position where unskilled labor is being sought for.

"SEATTLE SPIRIT."

As Described by a Former La Grande School Boy.

In a letter recently received by Mrs. Fred King of this city from Llewelyn Thomason, a former La Grande school boy, now residing in Seattle, in describing the Seattle spirit writes as follows:

That you may understand the Seattle spirit better, I will tell you the following story of it:

"It is said that the Seattle spirit appeared at the gates of heaven and asked for admission, but St. Peter refused it. Then the Seattle spirit went to the other place and was also refused admittance there. Then St. Peter and the other fellow decided to flip a coin to see which should take the spirit, but when St. Peter tossed the dollar in the air the Seattle spirit grabbed it and ran away and has never showed up at either place since."

 OPPOSITE FOUNDRY

Pay checks for O. R. & N. employes in La Grande, arrived yesterday and were today distributed to the men. The sum total is about the same as it has been for the past few months. Slashing in number of employes and occasional holidays on the part of those who were retained, has been responsible for the reduction in both number and size of checks of recent months.
