GREAT REVIVAL MEETING CLOSED IN PENDLETON

The big union meeting closed Sunday night at the M. E. church. Next Sunday will be a great day at the five churches which were united in this meeting. Baptismal services will precede the reception of members at the First M. E. church, the Baptist church and the Presbyterian church. The results, which will be evident next Sunday at these various churches will be a surprise to all.

All these churches are going to make Wednesday night a great time in revival and praise services and in meeting the new members for the first time since the union meeting was closed. By actual count there have been 270 knelt at the altar of prayer asking forgiveness and declaring that they would henceforth lead a Christian life trying to please God in all their lives. These have signed for some church, and will be received at once.

The First M. E. church will arrange for a service of baptism for those who desire to be immersed, at the river on Sunday afternoon with choir accompaniment. It was declared the last night that fully 150 had been reclaimed beside the 270 conversions.

The uplift given to all the churches in the union cannot be estimated. All sought a new life in Christ. The duty and privilege of Bible study and daily feeding upon it in a devotional instead of a disputing way has been urged right along, and there will be a great advance in real Bible study.

The union spirit of each church helping every other church and walking in love and good will, each one preferring the other, was emphasized, the evangelist declaring over and over again that by practical and open example the churches of Pendleton have proven that they are united for a great work like this. That an ounce of example is worth a ton of profession.

The morning and evening sermons yesterday were very impressive. Mr. Haudenschield proved that the only reason why he preaches so much about the dark side is because of the necessity of doing that. He can preach magnificently upon the other side. Many tears trickled down countless faces while he held up the heart-cry for God and what it all means to the soul.

Financially everything has been met and all seem happy to know that Pendleton did better than Eugene in this matter. Mr. Haudenschield has no stated salary. He goes out into the field to work and he accepts the free will offering of the people.

There cannot be any objection in the least to any one giving whatever he may desire. No one is constrained to give anything. It is all voluntary and while some who have been wonderfully blessed gave according to their desires and everybody seemed very well satisfied.

This work leaves all the churches closer in fellowship, and with the fact that the greatest meeting in the history of Pendleton has come to this place.

It will be much easier in the future to hold successful meetings of this nature.

Mr. Haudenschield goes from here to Nampa, where he holds a union meeting of six churches, then to Payette, and after that to Weiser, and then to La Grande.—Pendleton Tribune.

Medford Citizens Vote $40,000 Bond Issue for New Structure.

The school district bond issue was voted upon Monday afternoon and resulted in the polling of 125 votes. There were 104 in favor of bonding the district for a $40,000 new high school and 17 against. There were four spoiled ballots. The question which was also submitted to the voters as to whether or not the bonds were to be sold in Jackson county exclusively, or elsewhere, was carried in favor of being sold anywhere that purchasers may be had, by the same majority as was the question of bonding says the Medford Southern Oregonian.

The school board has not determined as yet where the high school will be located, but will make an effort to purchase the grounds from the city now occupied by the water tower, and may institute condemnation proceedings to get the grounds if suitable arrangements cannot be made to purchase the same.

The high school building will be three stories high and the ground space will be at least 100x160 feet.
