TOUCH UP WEAK SPOTS

With hard practice this afternoon and expecting to administer the finishing touches this evening, the local basketball team hopes to be in creditable form by tomorrow evening, when it faces the strong quintet from the Walla Walla high school.

Advance sale of tickets is going on—not over rapidly, but nevertheless satisfactory—and there seems to be little doubt but what the $50 expense will be raised. The entire cost of bringing the team here, with cost of advertising and the like, will run the total figure somewhat above the half hundred mark.

The Noyes rink affords ample room for all and splendid seats, as the balcony can seat nearly as many as the floor of the Commercial club auditorium. There is floor space beside which can accommodate several hundred.

The visitors will arrive on tonight's train from the west and spend the intervening time in the city.

Book Review.

"The Ancient Law" is an impressive story, that not only tells most dramatically of the triumphant fight of Daniel Ordway with his own past, but makes the reader feel that the struggle—in spite of failures and bitter disappointment—was indeed worth while. Ellen Glasgow, the writer, makes one smile in delight at many of her Virginia small-town characters; she weaves into the story a love episode of rare charm. But best of all, the book enlarges one's comprehension of human nature, and makes our judgment of our fellows a little less rigid, and a little more tempered with plain mercy.

"Three Weeks." One approaches this book with something of apprehension. It has been talked about, and commended; it has been discussed and condemned as vicious. Pages and reams have been written about this story; column after column has been given to book and writer. What for, we wonder?

The story does not amount to much as a story. True, it abounds in suggestive love scenes, and there a few highly dramatic paragraphs. But to the clear judgment of mature and normal men and women it is nothing but a well written account of what we condemn. That the book is worth reading, we must grant. The author would have us feel that two wrongs make a right, and she makes an excellent—as excellent as can well be—plea that we adopt her point of view. But "Three Weeks" is nothing to go wild over; it has infinitely more excuse for appearing on our shelves than another book that has received less condemnation, and of which tens of thousands have found their way into the libraries of fiction lovers.

We mean "The Yoke." Both these books deal with the sex problem. But while the first has many things to commend it, and especially the circumstances surrounding the life of the heroine, the latter is a poorly veiled argument for free love. There is but one strong scene for play makers to make use of, should the book be dramatized, and that is—rot!

Haudenschild Given Farewell.

About 100 people met at the O. R. & N. depot yesterday afternoon to see C. R. Haudenschild off. They sang "Blest Be the Tie That Binds Our Hearts in Christian Love," and "Shall We Gather at the River" in good old-fashioned style. As many as could shook him by the hand as he was about ready to depart. Mr. and Mrs. Haudenschild go from here to Nampa, where six churches unite in a union meeting for the next three or four weeks. The meeting opens there tonight under his direction.—Pendleton Tribune.

GUARDIANSHIP.

Be it remembered, that at a regular term of the county court of the state of Oregon, for the county of Union, in probate sitting, begun and held at the court house in the city of La Grande, in said county and state, on Monday, the 6th day of January, A. D. 1936, the same being the first Monday of said month, and the time fixed by law for holding a regular term of said court, when were present, the Honorable J. C. Henry, County Judge; J. B. Giham, Clerk; F. P. Childers, Sheriff.

When, on Thursday, the 30th day of January, A. D. 1936, or the 22nd judicial day of said term, among others the following proceedings were had, to-wit:

In the matter of the Guardianship of the person and estate of Maggie Given, true name Margaret Given, an insane person.

It appearing to the court from the petition of S. L. Given, guardian of the person and estate of Maggie Given, true name Margaret Given, an insane person, that there is no personal property belonging to said estate and that there is no cash on hand to defray the expense for the support and maintenance of said insane, and that it is necessary to sell the following described real estate, for the support and maintenance of the said insane person, to-wit: All that portion of the northeast quarter of the northwest quarter of section 30, township 4 S., range 49 E. W. M., excepting that portion heretofore deeded to Minnie Ostrander, bounded as commencing at the southwest corner of the northeast quarter of the northwest quarter of section 30, township 4 S., range 49 E. W. M., as aforesaid, and running thence east 54 rods and 6 links, thence north 59 rods and 3 links, thence west 54 rods and 6 links, thence south 59 rods and 3 links to place of beginning.

It further appearing to the court that the heirs at law and next of kin of Maggie Given, true name Margaret Given, are John Given, Portland, Oregon; William Given, Straeter, Nevada; Alfred Given, Spokane, Washington, and S. L. Given, La Grande, Ore. It further appearing to the court that it is necessary to sell said above described real property, and that it would be beneficial to said estate to sell the same.

It is by the said court ordered that the above named heirs at law and next of kin of said Maggie Given, true name Margaret Given, and all persons interested in said estate appear at the office of the undersigned at the court house in the city of La Grande, Union county, Oregon, on Tuesday, the 3rd day of March, A. D. 1936, at the hour of two o'clock of said day to show cause why a license should not be granted for the sale of said real estate.

It is further ordered that a copy of this order be published in the La Grande Evening Observer and that such publication be made once a week for four successive weeks.

Done and dated this 30th day of January, A. D. 1936.

J. C. HENRY,
County Judge.
