YOUR WORK

Is what we want. We don't call on you one week for it and tell you the next we cannot do it for you. We want it now, and all the time. We do not think it necessary at this time to say anything about the class of work we turn out. The fact that we have been in the LAUNDRY business for twelve years in La Grande we think sufficient evidence that our work is satisfactory. Try it.

SUGAR BEETS IN WALLOWA

To propagate sugar beet culture in Wallowa county is the practical plan formulated and which will be attempted by the Amalgamated Sugar company during the coming year or two.

The time when beet culture in that county is to be established on a paying and practical basis varies with the time required by the O. R. & N. to complete the railroad into the interior of that rich county. However, before the road has reached its destination and becomes a common carrier, the first seeds of sugar beet industry in Wallowa county will have been planted. Officers of the company are now in communication with head officials of the O. R. & N. and on the result of these communications will depend the exact steps to be taken.

In the event that the branch line is not completed this year, Wallowa farmers will be given an opportunity to experiment with sugar beets.

Representatives of the sugar company will visit Wallowa next week and distribute seeds gratis to the farmers there, instructing and requesting them to plant the seeds in a tentative way and should the road not be completed by harvest time, thus shutting off an easy market for the crop, the growers can feed the crop to stock, thus making the experiment a paying one in any event.

Thus it will not cost the grower an outlay of actual cash, but will give him the opportunity of learning what his particular farm can do with sugar beets at little cost. Should the culture prove profitable and successful in that county, which there is every reason to believe it will, Wallowa will become a rich tributary to the beet industry of Grande Ronde valley. The construction of the railroad will afford easy market for the crops.

Local Campaign On.

In the Grande Ronde the campaign for enlistment of individual growers has been fairly launched, and with the attractive prices that are assured the growers, the officials look for but little reluctance. Representatives are now in Cove, but they have made no report to the home office as yet.
