YOUR WORK

Is what we want. We don't call on you one week for it and tell you the next we cannot do it for you. We want it now, and all the time. We do not think it necessary at this time to say anything about the class of work we turn out. The fact that we have been in the LAUNDRY business for twelve years in La Grande we think sufficient evidence that our work is satisfactory. Try it.

terwards as the Old Fort. We returned with a favorable report and eight of us came back to the Grande Ronde with tools and provisions and went to work to build a fort. We built four houses, one on each corner of a lot containing about one-quarter of an acre, with the intention of stockading from one house to the other. We commenced work on October 2, 1861. The Auburn mines were located that fall, and men were coming through the valley and we did no more work on the fort. William Coffin was still here, and when he saw that we meant business, he worked up a joint stock company to build a sawmill. He was to furnish the mill and we poor cusses to take stock and work it out in the mill. The mill never materialized and when Mr. Coffin left, he hired Mr. Leasy to work his interest out and left him provisions enough to winter on. So you can see the circumstances which made it possible for Mr. Leasy to stay here. I have this to say, that as long as I am here I shall defend the rights of my friends, who came here with me. If there is any honor in being the first settlers of Grande Ronde valley, it belongs to those men who were the original bona fide settlers of the Grande Ronde valley, whose names are:

S. M. Black, W. Chaffer, R. Alexander, W. Marks, E. C. Crane, William McCauley, Ben Brown, wife and two children.

BEN BROWN.

Bishop Paddock En Route.

The newly elected bishop of this district is now en route from the east to his field of labor in eastern Oregon, says the Baker City Democrat. Prior to his coming he has been preaching and speaking throughout New England in an effort to secure money to further the work of the district to which he has been assigned.

He is now in the city of Chicago and will go to Milwaukee where he will preach and from there he goes to St. Paul and Minneapolis, where he will be on Sunday, the 22nd. He will arrive in Baker City if there is no preventing providence, on the 28th, and will preach here on Sunday, the 1st. On Monday the 2nd day of March, he will be entertained at a public reception at the Elks' hall.

Bishop Paddock is a western boy, was educated at Portland, and is familiar with this western country, his father at one time having been bishop of the state of Washington. He is unmarried, and as this is leap year he will have to run the gauntlet of the marriageable young ladies of the district.

Umatilla Indians Buy Church Bell.

To purchase a bell for the church mission at the Umatilla reservation is the purpose of the visit to Portland of three full-blood Indians who arrived at the Imperial hotel last night. This is perhaps the first Indian delegation of its kind to come to Portland on a similar mission. The committee is composed of Rev. E. J. Connors, Philip Jones and Albert Minthorn, all of whom are from the Tutuilla Indian church of the Umatilla reservation. Funds have been raised by the Indian church and the committee came here to select the bell personally in order that it may be satisfactory.—Portland Journal.

C. M. & St. P. Nears Completion.

H. L. Tibbetts, traveling freight and passenger agent of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad, is in the city today, looking after the business of his line, says the Walla Walla Bulletin. He says that his road is rushing its construction work through Washington and the northwest, and will be into Seattle in time for the A. Y. P. exposition in 1909.

"We will have trains running into Butte in the near future," he stated, "and our construction work is being rushed through Washington as fast as possible. We have the grading practically completed as far west as Land, Wash."

Grafting

Is a dead issue. So says Dr. H. C. Parker of the Indiana School of Medicine, in Collier's Weekly. We concur with him. Blue Mountain Cough Syrup will cure your cough, not as pleasant to take as some others, but it contains the ingredients that will positively and absolutely cure that cough.

BRICK IS CHEAPER

Brick building, at the present price of lumber, is cheaper as well as better. It has been demonstrated that my brick is superior to any made in Oregon. I can furnish common brick in any quantity. No order too large or too small to receive prompt attention. Correspondence with contractors and builders solicited. Estimates cheerfully furnished. Prices made known on application.
