Money Supports the Home

and it needs a steady influx of it to maintain the household and keep it going. To be sure of that steady flow of money, it is the best plan to bank the savings so that you will know where to reach them in time of need. For "rainy days" come to the thirteenth of us at times, and it is well for us if they find us prepared. Bank your surplus cash with us now, and you will have the pleasure of knowing that it is not only secure, but earning good interest.

MET AT HAINES.

Republicans Completed Organization of Club at Haines.

Saturday evening there was a republican gathering at Haines and the organization of the Garfield club, which was begun some time ago, was completed, says the Herald of Baker City. It was sort of a Washington celebration held in the Granite hall at Haines with Manager O'Brien as host. The program consisted of music and speeches. C. J. Osborne sang two popular selections and Henry McKinney boosted the Oregon university and the appropriation bill. After some time had been thus consumed the republicans withdrew to the Odd Fellows' hall and completed organization of the Garfield club.

C. J. Osborne was elected president, P. H. Durgan, vice-president; W. D. Nelson, secretary, and G. W. Vanderwald, treasurer. Speeches were delivered by Mr. Osborne, Mr. McKinney, Mr. Vanderwald and a number of others, the principal theme being the necessity of choosing good men for candidates at the primaries and then unite a strong effort for the whole ticket at the polls.

It was decided that the Garfield club should hold a grand rally on March 7th, at which time the Lincoln club of Baker City will be invited to be present.
