BIG SUM IS NOW READY

Union county has cause to feel proud of at least one of her public-spirited citizens. E. A. Eaton of the town of Union, some time ago announced that he would donate $50,000 to erect a building for liberal arts at the Willamette university. The matter has hung for some time and there are those who predicted that nothing would come of the offer. Mr. Eaton has within the last few days made an emphatic denial that he has withdrawn the large donation, and further says that he has no intention of so doing. It seems that unsettled state of affairs exists among the officers of the Willamette college at the present, and it is for that reason that Mr. Eaton has withdrawn his donation. In a recent interview the man who donated the fortune, said:

"When I gave the money I did it for the good of humanity and not for any strong personal attachment I may have felt for either Dr. Coleman or Bishop Moore. Not until after due deliberation and sufficient reflection did I make up my mind to give it, and no personal influence was ever brought to bear on me to that end. I am free to admit that my attention was first called to such a donation by Dr. Coleman and Bishop Moore as a worthy object, but I took a good long time to study it out carefully before making up my mind. I positively refused to contribute one cent toward the $100,000 endowment which I was afterward assured had been subscribed. I think I first told Dr. Coleman that I had made up my mind that the $50,000 would do as much good in the way he had suggested as for any other purpose and that the money should be given for that use. I had no idea until informed this morning of any report to the effect that the gift had been withdrawn, as it surely has not been, and will not be. I am only waiting for a favorable time to go on with the building and the earlier that comes the better I will be pleased. I am quite sure that neither Bishop Moore nor Dr. Coleman started this false report and I have been closer to them in this matter than to any one else."

HORSES HAVE STRANG DISEASE.

Dr. Lyman Goes to Make Investigation of Conditions.

According to a telephone message received yesterday from Henry Hill of Starkey Prairie, an epidemic of some sort is now raging among the horses of that vicinity. Dr. W. H. Lytle, state sheep inspector, who is one of the best veterinarians in the state, left for that place this morning, and if the conditions are serious he will notify State Veterinarian Kornbek of Salem.

The report made by Hill yesterday said five bands were affected and that he had already lost four young horses from the disease. He said it seemed to be a complication of pink eye and brain fever, and refused to yield to any of the common treatments usually resorted to.—Pendleton Tribune.

O. R. & N. to Help Farmers.

In order to increase its traffic from the inland empire and to induce farmers to cultivate their land more thoroughly throughout the wheat belt, the O. R. & N. company is planning to begin a campaign against summer fallowing in eastern Washington and Oregon.

Under the direction of General Freight Agent R. B. Miller of the O. R. & N., an anti-summer fallow train of specialists, lecturers and farming experts will be run over the system holding meeting and talking to farmers in regard to farming methods in the inland empire and it is hoped that by this means of agitation and education that every acre of land in the farming sections will be in crops every year.

This work will be along the same line as that performed by the late Col. R. C. Judson, who for many years was industrial agent of the O. R. & N. and who as such, introduced corn growing into Umatilla and other eastern Oregon counties.

The Jumping Off Place.

"Consumption had me in its grasp; and I had almost reached the jumping off place when I was advised to try Dr. King's New Discovery, and I want to say right now, it saved my life. Improvement began with the first bottle, and after taking one dozen bottles I was a well and happy man again," says George Moore, of Grimesland, N. C. As a remedy for coughs and colds and healer of weak, sore lungs and for preventing pneumonia New Discovery is supreme. 50c and $1 at the Newlin Drug Co.'s drug store. Trial bottle free.

Another Horse Show.

Walla Walla will hold a horse show next Saturday, February 29. Horsemen from neighboring towns have been invited to bring their horses and participate, and as they are responding quite liberally, a rousing show is anticipated.
