PADDOCK IN BAKER CITY

Bishop Robert L. Paddock reached Baker City last night from New York, and will henceforth be in charge of the Eastern Oregon Episcopal diocese.

In La Grande Friday.
Next Friday the bishop will visit La Grande and remain here for a week. Hence La Grande will be given an opportunity of hearing the Episcopal dignitary. In the interim, he will acquaint himself with Baker City's parish and parishioners.

The subject of his permanent location in eastern Oregon is undecided. It is believed by La Grande Episcopalians that he will use Baker City, La Grande and Pendleton as sectional territorial headquarters for several months and not confine himself to any one of the three larger cities of eastern Oregon for some time yet.

The ladies' guild of this city has furnished rooms in the rectory for the bishop's exclusive use, and whenever Bishop Paddock is in the city he will occupy these rooms.

Women Looking for Location.

Two eastern women, looking for locations for their husbands were in Pendleton yesterday. One is the wife of a merchant and the other the wife of a banker.

Through C. B. Adams, the booster, they learned some facts regarding Pendleton and Umatilla county which made them open their eyes and which will probably cause them to return here for a further investigation before returning to their homes in the east. The merchant's wife is from Keokuk, Iowa, while the other was from near Minneapolis.

Their route, which had been mapped out for them before leaving home, included a trip to Yakima, so they left for that place last evening. From there they will go to Portland and the coast and will probably return to Pendleton next week.—Pendleton East Oregonian.

Abandon Historic Fort.

Washington, Feb. 29.—In accordance with orders from the war department, the abandonment of Fort Reno, Okla., one of the most historic military posts of the southwest, will be made finally effective tomorrow. The site will be divided into town lots and farms. The fort has been occupied by troops for more than 50 years. It was from Fort Reno that General Custer marched on his famous expedition into the Wichita mountains against the hostile band of Indians headed by Iron Kettle. For many years the notorious Indian chief, Geronimo, was held a prisoner in its walls.

Rex in Milwaukee.

Milwaukee, Wis., Feb. 29.—King Rex and his queen, monarchs of Mardi Gras, arrived in Milwaukee today and this evening will be given a great ball in the Hippodrome by their loyal subjects. The big building has been decorated for the event in royal purple, gold and crimson, with myriads of electric lights, and the function will undoubtedly be the most brilliant and spectacular ever witnessed in Milwaukee.

Official of New Railroad.

Milwaukee, Wis., Feb. 29.—Effective tomorrow, D. M. Calkins, assistant general freight agent of the Milwaukee road, will become general freight and passenger agent of the new Montana line, with headquarters at Butte. He will have charge of the freight and passenger business of the new line between the Missouri river and Butte, which line, it is expected, will be formally opened for business early in April.

Grafting

Is a dead issue. So says Dr. H. C. Parker of the Indiana School of Medicine, in Collier's Weekly. We concur with him. Blue Mountain Cough Syrup will cure your cough, not as pleasant to take as some others, but it contains the ingredients that will positively and absolutely cure that cough. RED CROSS DRUG STORE.
