LOCAL CLUBS TO DEBATE

"Resolved, That the energy and effort of the churches should be exerted along political as well as religious lines," is the subject of a debate which will be fought out on the rostrum in this city next week some time, the date to be announced later.

The affirmative on the question will be carried by the Presbyterian Brotherhood, while the negative will be taken by the Brotherhood of St. Paul of the Methodist church. The teams will be composed of three members each, and something interesting is sure to result. The two factions are already preparing themselves for the fray.

The question for debate is worded in such a way that there is ample room for arguments on both sides of it. Much interest has been evinced and a large audience is expected out to hear the debate.

New England Breeders. Boston, March 3.—In response to the call for President J. M. Johnson, the postponed annual meeting of the New England Trotting Horse Breeders' association convened today in Young's hotel. President Johnson will present his plan for the reorganization of the breeders that will insure the running of the Rendville track for years to come and make the yearly income meet fully all expenses. Directors will be elected for the ensuing year, and indications point to many changes in the present board.

Hackney Horse Show. London, March 3.—London's annual hackney horse show opened today and will last until Friday evening. It will be followed next week by a hunter and polo pony show. The winners will be entered in the International Horse show to be held in London June 13 to 27.

PUBLICATION NOTICE. In the circuit court of the state of Oregon for Union county. La Grande National Bank, plaintiff, (a private corporation), vs. John Ott and Peter Bousquet, defendants.
