

Everything Needed

I have a complete line of 22 calibre Rifles, all kinds and prices. Also 22 Revolvers, 22 Cartridge, Cleaning Rods and anything else you need for the Squirrels.

Do not forget about those Pruning Shears. I have all kinds.

Those 25c Mormon Souvenirs are going fast. Call and look them over.

MRS. T. N. MURPHY
HARDWARE and CROCKERY

Ralph Hanson is down from North Powder today visiting friends.

A. P. Knox is over from Elgin today attending to business matters.

Miss Alice Priest left for Weston today to be gone for a brief visit.

J. W. O'Bryant, proprietor of the North Powder hotel, is a business visitor in the city today.

Mrs. George E. Goode went to Portland this morning. From there she will go to Grant's Pass to visit relatives.

Presiding Elder J. D. Gillman left today for Wallowa, where he will visit the several Methodist churches of that county.

Attorney C. A. Moore of Baker City, is looking after legal business and transacting business at the land office today.

Judge Crawford leaves tonight for Baker City, where he will preside over the circuit court in a case or two for Judge Smith.

T. J. Ormond was taken down Friday with ja grippe, which has developed into other complications of a serious nature. He is in a serious condition.

Miss Mary Retsland is home from Hood River, where she attended the Royal Neighbors' state convention. The next convention will be held at Salem.

Some one paying his water rent at the office of the city recorder yesterday left a package containing a black table scarf and some ribbon. The owner can obtain the same by calling at The Observer office.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Ransom, who has had the Farmer hotel rented for the past five months in La Grande, has taken charge and have converted it into a first-class rooming house. The Observer wishes them a good patronage.

At noon today the office of the Grande Ronde Electric company received a 'phone message from the power station at Cove, to the effect that in case it did not turn cold and freeze tonight, for La Grande to expect light.

Citizens should remember the meeting at the Commercial club tomorrow night. It is as essential that a good attendance be present at this meeting, as it was at the first mass meeting. The membership committee will report tomorrow night.

There will be no services at St. Peter's Episcopal church on Friday night.

D. Fitzgerald, proprietor of the La Grande Iron works, returned this morning from Portland, where he has been several days purchasing supplies.

George Stoddard, who has been in California for several days looking after his timber interests, returned this morning. He states it is regular summer time down south.

George Ferguson of Union, on his return from Portland, stopped over today to spend the day with his brother Walter, who is proprietor of Ferguson's book store.

Mrs. E. F. Thornton and children, who have resided in Summerville for the past six years, left this morning for Salt Lake, where they expect to reside in the future.

Mrs. Pete Johnson of Huntington, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Adams, in this city for the past three weeks, returned to her home last evening.

P. McD. Fuller, the civil engineer, who was in charge of the construction work on the Pilot Rock branch, but who is now doing railroad work in northern Idaho, left last evening for La Grande.—Pendleton Tribune.

LOCAL ITEMS

Mrs. George Hansen came down last evening from Telocaset.

Miss Patience West of Union, is a guest of the Misses Morton.

F. B. Clark, a representative of a Walla Walla clothing house, is transacting business in La Grande today.

O. H. Holcomb, the Seattle horse buyer, is back again after another carload of horses.

Mrs. O. F. Coolidge has returned from Utah, where she was called by the illness and death of her mother.

Mrs. C. J. Scriber left this morning to be a guest of Mrs. Grace Toney in Baker City for a few days.

J. N. Klein, who formerly conducted the Hickory saloon in this city, has embarked in the grocery business in Portland, and left on last evening's train.

James Nelson left this morning for Huntington, where he will run the switch engine for the next 10 days, while Engineer Blood looks after his fruit farm in Fruitdale.

NEW ARRIVALS SPRING GOODS

McCALL PATTERN No. 2052
Princess Gown of Gray Pongee

Princess Gown of Grey Pongee or light weight Wool material made up like the illustrated model is a very neat garment.

SPRING WEIGHT WOOL GOODS
JACKETS, SUITS, MILLINERY

Nobbiest Things in Footwear
Oxfords, Tans, Patents

Men's Furnishings, Strong Line
Spring Suits, McKibbin Hats
Every Thing For Spring Wear in Men's Toggery

GARDEN TOOLS & SEEDS

Everything in Garden
Spring Goods you will need in making your garden or fixing over your lawn.

THE GOLDEN RULE CO.
La Grande, Oregon

Agents For McCall's Patterns

Mrs. Carrie E. Wetman left last evening to make her home in Palo Alto, Cal. She will be missed by a large circle of friends.

H. H. Palmer, editor of the Hop-growers' Reporter, of Aurora, Marion county, came in last evening and left this morning for Elgin.

Joseph Anson, who was called to California by the serious illness of his sister, returned this morning, leaving her greatly improved.

A SPECIAL SALE

WE NEVER HAVE BEEN UNDERSOLD AND WE NEVER EXPECT TO BE.

AN OFFER EXTRAORDINARY
STEINBLOCH CLOTHING
SATURDAY ONLY
ANY SUIT IN THE HOUSE $15

Hats, regular	$3.00	Sale price	$2.45
Hats, J. B. Stelson	4.50	Sale price	3.50
Monark Shirt	1.25	Sale price	1.00
Cluett Shirt	1.50	Sale price	1.15
Hanan Shoes	$6.50-$7.00	Sale price	$5.00
Gloves, 1.50 Gauntlet		Sale price	1.25
Gloves, 1.25 Gauntlet		Sale price	1.15
Without Gaunt'l.	.25		.90

ANDREWS & BERRY