

GOOD BLOOD

NATURE'S PROTECTION AGAINST DISEASE

The preservation of health and prevention against disease is almost entirely dependent upon pure, healthy blood; every organ, tissue, nerve and sinew of the body draws on this vital fluid for nourishment and strength. Poisons, humors and germs from various sources often get into the blood, and then this great life-stream becomes a source of infection and disease, instead of a nourishing, health-sustaining fluid. Heredity is likewise an important factor, regulating the quality of the blood. Some persons are born with tainted blood from diseased ancestry, and Scrofula in one of its numerous forms is sure to crop out some time in life. Not only poisons in the blood are responsible for disease, but when the circulation is run down and becomes poor and weak in quality, then we see the effect in a general bad condition of health, such as weakness, sallow complexions, boils, and various skin eruptions. All blood troubles require a tonic and blood purifier, and none other equals S. S. S. It goes down to the very foundation of the trouble, and removes every particle of the poison or impurity from the blood. And not only does S. S. S. antidote the poisons, humors and germs, but it possesses health-giving, tonic properties, which build up and strengthen weak, impoverished blood, and fortifies the system against disease. S. S. S. permanently cures Rheumatism, Catarrh, Sores and Ulcers, Scrofula, Eczema, Tetters, and all other skin diseases and disorders. Book on the blood and any medical advice free.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

IS A HARD WORKER

The amount of work that Charles B. Hanford puts into each season's production has been frequently commented on with wondering admiration. It is an old custom to say that a manager has spared neither pains nor expense, when it is desired to impress the magnitude of his offering. In the case of Hanford the phrase may be properly revived. It applied with accuracy. A series of stage settings, spectacular in design and lavishly beautiful in execution, assist in the representation of that marvelous poem-pageant, "Antony and Cleopatra." In selecting this play, Mr. Hanford carries out a definite scheme of chronology. His production of "Julius Caesar" last year told the story of Antony, the orator and warrior. This season will reveal his as the lover. In "Antony and Cleopatra" Miss Alice Wilson is cast as Cleopatra, a role the possibilities of which are limitless. The constant play of emotion in this strange revelation of complex possibilities of a woman's nature calls for the utmost powers that an actress can command. As tender in her devotion as Juliet, as winsome when she so wills to be, as Viola, as vivacious of mind as Estelle, she is as terrible when roused to tragic determination, as Lady Macbeth. Antony is far from being the consistent hero that strict moral standards would demand. Indeed, the majority of Shakespeare's more prominent characters would scarcely pass muster as invariable examples for the guidance of youth. But Antony is nevertheless a great man; one who is worshiped by his friend; feared by his foe. The passion which warped his career might under different circumstances and with another object have been a virtue instead of a fault. As it was, he paid a heavy and relentless penalty for his one weakness.

"Antony and Cleopatra" will be Mr. Hanford's play at Steward's opera house on Monday, March 23.

MORE GAMES ON ROLLERS

The white shirts and red shirts are sparring for another basketball game on skates. The defeated team is confident of victory, as it lost by but one point at the last game, and the winners are forced to accept the challenge or back down in ignominy. The result is that the game of last Tuesday will be continued next Friday night, one week from tonight. The all-absorbing topic this week has been basketball, and if outside teams will accept challenges that have been sent them, a matched game will follow. Pendleton and Baker City roller skating adepts have been challenged and it is expected that one of the cities at least will accept. In the meantime interest will center on the game announced for Friday night. The stakes are to be higher this time. The supper for which the game is to be played will be open to the players and their lady friends.

Both teams will use every available minute in practice.

By practical experience back leans have learned many valuable lessons, and these will be used with effect at the next game.
