EZRA COMING BACK.

Was First to Go Over the Oregon Trail and wants to Be the Last.

St. Louis, Mo., March 12.—The old prairie schooner in which Ezra Meeker crossed the plains in 1842, is in St. Louis en route back to Puyallup, Wash., from Washington, D. C., where Meeker saw President Roosevelt in behalf of the movement to mark the Oregon trail.

Pulled by a span of Durham oxen the old schooner, containing W. B. Mardon and his bride, reached St. Louis last evening and were followed all over the downtown streets by large crowds. Meeker himself arrived yesterday by rail from Cincinnati and announced his intention to interest the local automobile club in the Oregon trail matter, if possible.

"All I want them to do," Meeker said, "is to urge their congressmen to vote for the bill."

Meeker said he would take charge of the oxen and his schooner and drive over the trail the rest of the way.

"I was the first one to go over the Oregon trail with a span of oxen and will be the last one," he added.

O. A. C. Track Team Prospects.

The prospects for a winning track team this year are very bright as we have some good new material and the big tent has afforded an excellent opportunity for early training. Each afternoon a large squad has been turning out for work. Prominent among the new men is Lounsbury, the Salem man, whose excellent record is known to all. He takes part in the hurdles, weights, and high jumps and is a valuable acquisition to the team. Another new man is our giant football hero, Jamison, whose particular line is the weights. Farnsworth, a former Utah man, is practicing with the pole and, from his style of work, stands well to make the team. McLaughlin, winner of the freshman cross-country, will make the older men work hard to hold their places.

Among the old men who have been out in track togs are Captain Hall and Wolfe at the weights; Schneider in the sprints; Davolt, Winniford, Crow and Cross in the long distance runs; Greenhaw, and Howard in the half and quarter-mile; Brodte, Swannie and Sutherland at the hurdles, and Rooper, Chapman and Swann in the pole vault, high jump and broad jump. Captain Hall expects to have his team in good condition for the meet at Columbia in April.

Snow Rapidly Melting.

A warm rain on the Blue mountains last night melted away a large part of the snow and the streams are slightly swollen today as a result. There is from two to three feet of snow in the heavy timber yet, but in the open there is but little left.

Sold Out Again, Doctor.

By reason of the remarkable volume of business that has come to us and by reason of a hundred demands for farms, we want immediate listment of valley farms and city property. Don't list with us unless you want to sell.

F. S. BRAMWELL,
C. J. BLACK.
