ball game this spring, in fact, two of next week, the strong Enterprise cross bats with a local team which perfected its organization last night. Soon after the series here, the La Grande team will go to Wallowa coun ty, where it will contest with Lostine. Enterprise and Joseph. Enterprise has the strongest team in Wallows county, where the sport has been the all-absorbing topic of the past several months. It comes to La Grande with months of practice, while the home team must whip itself into shape in something like a week and a half. The first practice will be held at the Commercial club next Wednesday night.

Indoor baseball has been permanently organized here. The organization was perfected last evening, and will hold over until next winter, when the sport will be taken up earlier in the season.

It is still too early to state who will constitute the team, but the city has a strong twirler in S. D. Crowe, who has a past record in the game. His long experience will materially aid the other candidates. At the meeting last night, he was selected captain and coach. The other officials of the organization are: Walter Ferguson, secretary-treasurer, and A. W. Nelson, manager.

HOUSEWIVES AS CLERKS.

Neighborhood Club Women Taking Turns at Selling Dress Goods.

The special sales at the People's store under the direction of the Neighborhood club, which receives a liberal per cent of the receipts during the week, are progressing nicely Housewives are acting as clerks, with assistance from the regular force of employes, and the many ladies who each day have charge of the sales are delighted with their work. Each day sees a new force of supernumerary clerks. Yesterday the Neighborhood club members who had charge, were: Mrs. N. Molitor, chairman; Mrs. O. E. Silverthorn, Miss Nina Hunstock, Mesdames Selders, T. J. Scroggin, J. M. Berry, E. E. Bragg and J. D. Slater,

Today the personnel of the imromptu clerks is: Mrs. Mallory. chairman: Mesdames Kirk, Riddle, J. T. Richardson, W. S. Seemann, Miss Slater, Mesdames W. A. Worstell, J. K. Wright, Ed Kiddle and Bidwell.

Tomorrow's committee will be: Mrs. Carpy, John Collier, Grace Ingle, E. C. Moore, George Palmer, John Williamson, W. H. Rush and C. Hum-

FIFTEEN CREWS IDLE.

Freight Traffic at a Complete Standstill Here This Week.

Not only is passenger traffic blocked to the west, but the freight business, both east and west, is at a standstill this week. Fifteen engine crews are marked up, but nevertheless are laying idle. The roundhouse is filled with engines, as the only demand for locomotives is the east-end passenger service, and the wor't trains which are at Allen's spur today with supplies and equipment.
