YOUR WORK

Is what we want. We don't call on you one week for it and tell you the next we cannot do it for you. We want it now, and all the time. We do not think it necessary at this time to say anything about the class of work we turn out. HONOR ST. PATRICK

New York, March 17.—Manhattan became an Emerald Isle in miniature today in honor of Erin's patron saint. Early this morning the streets and buildings blossomed into a brilliant green, with flags, bunting and banners of the Irishmen's beloved color flaunting everywhere. Today's parades and demonstrations were on a magnificent scale. Seldom before has there been such an outpouring of Irishmen and their descendants in the metropolis. Practically all the business houses owned by Irishmen were closed at noon, and many other employers gave a half-holiday to their Irish employees. So far as possible, policemen, firemen and other city officials of Irish descent were allowed to participate in the day's festivities. One of the most important events of the day will be tonight's banquet of the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick, which will be addressed by Governor Hughes, Governor Johnson of Minnesota and Secretary Taft.

More General in London.
London, March 17.—With the Irish banner floating from many public buildings, and shamrocks and green flags to be seen everywhere, St. Patrick's day was observed today more generally than ever before in London. All of the Irish troops in London garbisons were given a leave of absence for the day. The Irish Guards at the Tower of London were the recipients of costly and handsome shamrocks from the royal family, this custom having been established by Queen Victoria. Several parades were held and special services at all Catholic churches marked the day.

Ireland Enthusiastic.
Dublin, March 17.—St. Patrick's day was made the occasion for the usual enthusiastic demonstrations throughout Ireland today. Scores of dignitaries of the church and state reviewed the great parade at Dublin Castle, participated in by a large proportion of the able-bodied men of Dublin and witnessed by many thousands of visitors. Business in Dublin and all other cities of Ireland is suspended and all public buildings and nearly all shops are closed.

Solons Wear Shamrocks.
Washington, March 17.—In accordance with a custom established many years ago, each member of the house today appeared with a shamrock or a green ribbon in his buttonhole. A great parade through the streets of the national capital was held this afternoon by the Irish societies of Washington.

Chicago Catholics Celebrate.
Chicago, March 17.—Chicago celebrated the anniversary of the good St. Patrick with the usual enthusiasm today. Elaborate services, in which the various Hibernian societies participated, were held in several Roman Catholic churches.

Observed in Northwest.
Flandreau, S. D., March 17.—J. J. Regan of St. Paul, national vice-president of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, and several other prominent Irishmen of the Dakotas and Minnesota, are among the speakers at the St. Patrick's day celebration here today.

St. Louis Irish-Americans.
St. Louis, March 17.—St. Patrick's day was generally observed here, the celebration ending tonight with the ninth annual banquet of the Irish-American Society of St. Louis.

Celebrate at 'Frisco.
San Francisco, March 17.—The Stars and Stripes are temporarily eclipsed in San Francisco today and the place of the national banner has been usurped by the green flag of Ireland, which is floating from hundreds of buildings. Special services on the part of thousands of Irishmen in San Francisco marked the day.

Even Japan Observes.
Tokyo, March 17.—Catholic missionaries in Japan observed today as a feast day and elaborate celebrations were held at all the churches, missions and schools. The festivities commemorate, not alone the anniversary of St. Patrick, but also the reopening of the country to missionaries, on March 17, 1855. It was then discovered that the Japanese Catholics had remained true to their faith, although absolutely isolated from the Christian world for three centuries, since 1640, when 1000 Catholic missionaries and thousands of native Christians suffered martyrdom.

DRIVE COMING DOWN.

Many Logs Have Already Reached Perry From Hilgard.

A large number of logs have already reached the Perry reservoir from the drive which starts at Hilgard. The crew went to work yesterday and will be kept at work for three or four days, or until the last of the drive proper, and the stray logs have been ushered into Perry. The crew is working at Hilgard, breaking the logs loose, and once loose it does not take the timber long to reach its destination. With the high water to carry them down the steep grade which the river takes between the two towns, the speed which the logs assume is sometimes terrific.
