Present Circulation Manager C. C. Wilson, for the past several menths in charge of that department for The Observer, has resigned his position to accept a proffered position as window trimmer in a Walla Walla department store. He severed his connection with The Observer today.

Oakley A. Coffin, formerly with The Observer as head of the circulation department, will again assume the duties. He, too, has resigned his position as district manager for the Spokesman-Review, that he might accept the position on this paper.

Mr. Wilson will leave for Walla Walla early next week. While with The Observer he has proven himself a conscientious, hustling and enterprising young man.
