DEDICATORY SERVICES OF BAPTIST CHURCH OPEN TONICHT

COMMENCES WITH BROUGHER'S LECTURE AND ENDS WITH SUNDAY NIGHT SERVICES

HOPE TO SEE MONETARY ENCUMBRANCES REMOVED SUNDAY

Long-Waited-For Hour Has Come and Local Baptists Point With Pride to Evidence of Hard Work

tion lecture.

place of prayer and praise last eve- church. ning, when all details of the dedication were carefully gone over,

The lecture this evening will help materially in providing needed funds hope is cherished, of seeing, Sunday evening, the building free from all encumbrance.

Dr. Brougher has come from his great work in Portland for the purpose of alding La Grande to deflicate this new church without debt. As far as Dr. Brougher is concerned, he Hams, Chas. Cochran and Geo. Cochgets merely enough, financially, to meet the expenses of the trip and sup- of the church by Baptist Young peoply his own pulpit in Portland. The ple, people of La Grande greatly apprecicongregation at the White Temple, in Hair and Backbone," loaning him to us for a few days. This appreciation can best be shown by the citizens of La Grande turning out in large numbers to hear him in his lecture tonight, on "What's Under Your

The hour has struck. Dr. Brough- | Hat?" Two hundred tickets were sold er reached La Grande this morning, before last night. Many will buy to-Frets comes tonight. Other visitors day. Tickets on sale at Silverthorn reach this city today. The long cher- & Mack's drug store; also at the door ished and greatly welcomed dedication Lecture opens at 8 o'clock. Accept season opens tonight with a dedica- the treat offered by a noble people and receive rich returns for your money The beautiful auditorium was the also obtain a few brick in the new PROGRAM.

Friday, March 27.

8 p. m., lecture, "What's Under to meet outstanding accounts. Good Your Hat?" by J. Whitcomb Brougher, D. D., pastor White Temple, Portland, Ore.

Saturday, March 28.

Popular gospel service, 12:15 to p. m. Sermon by Dr. Brougher, theme, "Heaven and Hell," illustrated. Quartet: Geo, L. Cleaver, C. S. Wilran. Free lunch served in basement ate the fraternal courtesy of the great mon by Dr. Brougher; theme, "All Evangelistic service, 8 p. m. Ser-

Sunday, March 29.

Sunday school, 9:45 a. m., Dr. J. E. Stevenson, superintendent. Address

(Continued on page 6.)

AN HISTORIC REVIEW OF BAPTISTS IN CRANDE RONDE

The First Baptist church in this city ley, however, dates back to the early was organized at the Liberty school slatties, when the work was first begun House, near the Grange hall, the 3rd at Cove under the leadership of Rev. Saturday in November, 1873. It/was William Koger. Koger's efforts were church. Rev. L. J. Booth of Cove, supplemented by Rev. L. J. Boothe. acted as moderator and F. T. Dick as and later, in 1865, Rev. B. H. Lewis, clerk. The following ploneers, the father of the only present living conmajority of whom have entered into stituent member, H. P.

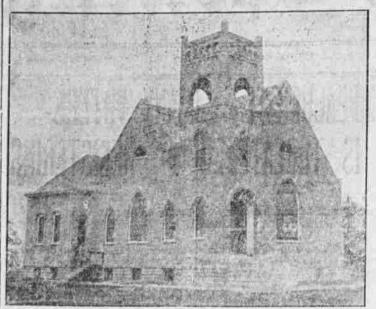

Rev. C. A. Woodell, D. D. Mary r intendent of Home Missions on the Pactific Coast.

their reward, were constituent mem- | South La Grande.

Mariah Lewis and F. T. Dick. Baptist life in Grande Ronde val-

Rev. B. H. Lewis, Mrs. B. H. Lewis, Rev. Lewis and George Webb, a build-Through the energetic leadership of ing was fitted out in South La Grande

(Continued on page 6.)

HISTORY OF THE OLD, AND DESCRIPTION OF THE NEW

The old church edifice was built been of great help to the enterprise inder the valiant leadership of Rev. achievement. But it had served its neapolis. The climax here is reached time and was sold to John Wilson, by the large window in the east end who removed it, in order to give place It is, "Clinging to the Cross," At the for the new structure. Unfortunately apex is the Star of Bethlehem casting the purchaser, failing to lay well his its gentle light upon the open Bible. foundations, permitted the old build- Then, streaming down through the ing to collapse, and it remains today Word from the Star, come the golden mortally twisted and effaced, only

The most fascinating feautre of the George T. Ellis, in South La Grande, entire structure is the art glass win-and for its day was a splendid dows, furnished by Ford Bros.', Minrays of light falling on a dark and we blocks from where she once stood, trouble, storm-tossed sea. In the re-

Pastor W. H. Gibson, Under Whose Direction the New Church Was to God and called to rest and wor- seen a wrecked vessel. To the foreship.

emn voke from the more substantial and the soul is anchored. tower, it calls more emphatically still Attractive memorial windows are to worship and service. belings are modern in every partie. the King's Messenger Boys, or. A Quaker furnace installed by John Mclville, of this city, furnishes finish is in tile effect, with white namel. In the walls supports are placed for flowers, and from the cener, amid the flowers, plays perpetualy, a fountain, issuing a delicate spray. The execution of this design has been mittee. by J. Reisland of this city.

The pews are of the best Michigan balt, built for beauty and comfort. The electric lighting, done by the Grande Ronde Electric company, is superb. Fred Housh has figured srominently in the designs and has her spire pointed the passerby mote distance through the shadows is front is the stranded pilgrim. In the On the spot where stood the old, a midst of the storm, after wreck and new, commodious and beautiful struc- despair, she has found the cross, reture of brick and stone, today stands, vealed to her in the light streaming The only reminsers of the old edifice from the Star of Bethlehem through and its equipment that linger are the the Word. Then, bordering the scene pews, retained in the lecture room, are the laurels and the lilles which tell and the splendid beli, the best in the the story of peace and rest found at city. With charming tones and sol- the cross when the storms are stilled designated "In Memory of Mrs. May S. The new edifice rises from a foun- Fox," by C. L. Fox, "In Memory of dation of stone, which covers 44x68 Mrs. Minnie Wells." by George Wells feet. There is a basement under the "In Memory of Mrs. Louise Moon," by onlike building, cight feet in the clear O. W. Moon. Also "Fellowship Mt. od the superstructure is divided into Pleasant Church." "Fellowship, Cove ar results. The audiforming by $15.44 (Prorch." One window is donated by col. The lecture room is 22x2x, and the Sunday school, one by the Atd The to the north end are the past/18's society and one by the Young People's by and robing rooms. The fur- soul ty. The transom was donated by

The Building's Builders.

The nutline of the building is Pasreal. The Baptistry is a new design, tor Gibson's. The architect whose rought out wholly by Paster Gibson, skill is embodied in its embellishstands to the right of the speaker's ment is C. R. Thounton. The foundadeak and is built of cement, rising 40 tion and basement were built by nelies above the floor level. The Woodward & Taylor, and the brick work done by Messra, C. I. Johnson and George Hulse. The work was directed by I. F. Douglas. Messrs, C. G. Greene and Dr. J. E. Stevenson have been at the head of the building com-

> The entire structure represents, exclusive of the lots, about $8,500, of which amount about $6000 has been collected and expended. Of this amount the American Bapfist Home

(Continued on page 6.)

THE ENERGETIC MAN WHO NOW OCCUPIES THE BAPTIST PULPIT

A SON OF SOUTH CAROLINA, BUT NEVERTHELESS A EDNIAN NOW

TRACES HIS PARENTAGE TO ROYAL ENGLISH

With His Conscientious Effort Has Aided Materially in Erecting the Splendid Church Home

grandfather was Colonel William Gib- Oil company for 10 years, Mr. Gibson, who did service under the Eng- son of this city grew up on the cottor lish flag during the Revolutionary plantation in South Carolina, and war. He was a first cousin of King came to know every detail of the cot-George III., who laid his oppressive ton industry. He remained on th hand on the American colonies and farm till 21 years of age, when he forced the revolutionary struggle.

libson, the pastor's grandfather, migrated to America and made his home in South Carolina, where he did Saptist work deep and well in the old Palmetto state. The descendants and reside largely in South Carolina. The Gibson family reunion every five in which 750 descendants were gath-

s the son of the late R. B. Gibson. immediate family of 10 children are new county, where he settled as the gripping the world well. Two are first resident minister in the county, cian, two are railroad men, one a politician, one a contractor and builder, Pastor W. H. Gibson is of English (is one of John D. Rockefeller's trusted lescent and of royal blood. His great men, having worked for the Standard entered Furman university, which institution he graduated in 1891, also graduating from the Cou ern Baptist Theological Semina Louisville, Ky., in 1893, thus spendploneer work and laid foundations of ing seven years in collegiate and seminary training at his own charges, after his majority was reached.

In 1893 he came west to accept a call to Ellensburg, Wash. But failing to find conditions there as expected, years is an established fact. Last drifted into Oregon, stopping for a June Rev. W. H. Gibson attended, in few weeks in Union, in this valley, nis native state, a family convocation The first winter was spent in the school room at Summerville. In September, 1894, he was married b Miss Lily A. Choate, daughter of the late S. C. Choate of Summerville. The Esq., and Mrs. Theresa Gibson. The first pastoral work done was in Harministers of the gospel, one a physi- Two years were spent in that destitute field, but they were good years.

(Continued on page 6.)

J. W. BROUGHER PLANTED "NEW CHURCH" SPIRIT IN LA GRANDE

Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher, whose, held the reigns of the city in his own stirring eloquence and energetic, un- hands," definable life is so felt in Portland, potently for good, is here for the dedlcation season. The Hoosier state proudly owns him her son. He was born in Indiana some 38 years ago. He makes people laugh and think and He graduated from California college cry and pray." with M. A. in 1894, and later from

Sam Jones said of him:

"Dr. Brougher is one of the most captivating preachers in this country.

President Roosevelt, who has heard

Rev. J. Whitcomb Brougher, D. D., P aster of White Temple, Portland, Orc.

Rochester Theological seminary. He him more than once, said: has held pastorates in Paterson, N. J.; Chartanooga, Tenn., and Portland, Or., at the White Temple. A citizen of Grande: "Sir, when Brougher was here he like him."

"Dr. Brougher is a great preacher." The Pendleton East Oregonian says: "Dr. Brougher is one of the pictur-

Tennessee once said to a citizen of La esque figures in the pulpit of the northwest. There is no one else just