This firm can handle all your land and property. List them with us for certain results. We sell farms by the scores. To list them with us, is to sell them.

YOUR WORK

Is what we want. We don't call on you one week for it and tell you the next we cannot do it for you. We want it now, and all the time. We do not think it necessary at this time to say anything about the class of work we turn out. The fact that we have been in the LAUNDRY business for twelve years in La Grande we think sufficient evidence that our work is satisfactory. Try it. A. B. C. LAUNDRY TELEPHONE MAIN 7

MOVE THE HACK STAND

R. W. Goodman has purchased a half interest in the E. L. Bussey 'bus line and will hereafter be connected with the hack service in this city. The hacks owned by the firm are to be renovated. One is already under process of repair and general overhauling at the La Grande Iron works. The other will go into shop in a few days. The headquarters of the company will be moved at once, or as soon as another suitable location can be found. This is delightful news to the citizens at large, as the headquarters now are anything but desirable, and increased patronage will undoubtedly result.

Wanted for Bigamy.

W. P. Rihorn, formerly a real estate dealer of Pendleton, but who has been engaged in that business in Portland for the past two years, is now wanted by Multnomah county authorities for the crime of bigamy and a warrant is out for his arrest.

While Rihorn was yet married to the wife which accompanied him from this city to Portland, he wooed and wed Miss Anna H. Sanderson of Pueblo, Col., at Elma, Wash., last Christmas day and after going to Portland Rihorn took his new wife to a low class rooming house, used up all her savings and finally deserted her, after he had been ordered by District Attorney Manning to pay her $30 per month for her support.

Miss Sanderson was formerly a school teacher of Pueblo and had saved several hundred dollars, the loss of which she now mourns. Rihorn has left Portland and is being sought by the authorities for the crime of bigamy, he having married Miss Sanderson while yet the husband of Mrs. Rihorn, who lived with him in this city. A penitentiary sentence awaits him when caught.—Pendleton East Oregonian.

Cured Hemorrhages of the Lungs.

"Several years since my lungs were so badly affected that I had many hemorrhages," writes A. M. Ake, of Ind. "I took treatment with several physicians without any benefit. I then started to take Foley's Honey and Tar, and my lungs are now as sound as a bullet. I recommend it in advanced stages of lung trouble." Foley's Honey and Tar stops the cough and heals the lungs and prevents serious results from a cold. Refuse substitutes. A. T. Hill.
