Budweiser

IS a beer of redoubtable name and fame.

Health, strength and vigor glows and sparkles in every glass. Fifty years ago we began to brew it. For fifty years the most fastidious have pronounced it without an equal in any land. It is known from ocean to ocean, from the gulf to the lakes, and wherever Americans go for business or health or pleasure — Budweiser is there.

HOW many living men can squarely stand up and honestly compare themselves as the equal or superior (in any way whatsoever) to the great Iron Chancellor of the Hohenzollern's, who made Goethe's dream of Germanic unity a realistic drama of "iron and of blood?"

How many dare declare, "I have greater brain power than he"—"I have a stronger body"—"I am healthier"—"I have a saner knowledge"—"I am more successful" or "I have more force of character?"

Bismarck, during his marvelous career, outwitted the most celebrated statesmen of his time; terrified the mightiest kings and emperors; overthrew and conquered three armed nations; and ruled over the empire he created with enlightened and practical wisdom for nearly half a century, dying at the ripe old age of 89, famous throughout the world as the "Greatest of the Germans."

Now, upon what nutriment was this colossus fed that he grew so mighty; what put the iron into his blood? This we know—that like all Germans he believed in good eating and drinking, hence the juices of malt and hops were never absent from his table.

Authority—any biography of Bismarck.

HORSE SHOW A WINNER

The second annual horse show of Baker county is a thing of the glorious past. Nature smiled on the promoters of the great event and furnished a perfect day, just such a one as the people of the country delight to celebrate, says the Baker City Democrat.

How many people were in the city? No one knows, but they were here. The merchants had no holiday, they were busy from the early morning until the close of the stores in the evening. How many goods were sold? Only the merchants know and they are telling no secrets. It's enough to know that there will be no holding back when the next Horse show and Market day comes around.

Promptly at 1 o'clock the parade started at the lower end of Center street, headed by the Baker City Concert band, followed by an exhibition of Percheron stallions, running and trotting horses, jacks and ponies. William S. Levens mounted on a store box, a la street vendor, called the horses as they passed. He did it well and to the satisfaction of the owners and the crowd. After the parade there was a wedding? No, there was a bluff at a wedding, that's all, but it satisfied the crowd that something was doing.

After the parade and the announcements of the horses by Judge Levens, there was an auction sale in front of Kelly's Implement house, conducted by W. A. Gossett.

New Standard Oil Trial.

Chicago, April 6.—Charged with accepting concessions from the Chicago & Eastern Illinois Railroad company on shipments of oil from Whiting, Ind., to Evansville, the Standard Oil company of Indiana will be placed on trial in the United States district court today. Attorneys for the company will probably attempt to secure another delay. The case was originally set for trial before Judge Landis, who declined to hear it, and it was transferred to the calendar of Judge Bethes. It is a larger case than that involving the Chicago & Alton railroad, which was tried before Judge Landis and in which a fine of more than $29,000,000 was imposed on the Standard Oil company. The Eastern Illinois case includes 2124 counts, and under them a maximum fine of $42,480,000 is possible.

To Vote on Sunday Opening. Chicago, April 6.—Popular interest in tomorrow's spring election in Chicago is intense, the overshadowing issue being the popular vote on the Sunday saloon question. Both those who favor and those who oppose an "open Sunday" have been working valiantly and there is every prospect of a large outpouring of voters. The United societies, composed largely of foreigners, have led the fight for Sunday opening, and secured the signatures of 168,062 voters to the petition asking that the question be submitted to a popular vote.
