"KEEP ON SMILING."

Ferrin to Sing This Popular Illustrated Song Tonight.

"Keep on Smiling." This is the big musical hit at the Electric theater this time. C. P. Ferrin sang this musical classic at the Elks' minstrels, and those who heard it there will want to do so again. With the beautiful slides which come with the song, this attraction alone is worth more than the dime admission. The comic department of this set of films, which will be seen tonight for the first time, is done up in a film called "Mourning for Chloe." Whether Chloe is a mother-in-law or his divorced wife is an even guess. The mourner is a distinguished looking gentleman before he does his lady love and proceeds to load himself within by strong drink. Mistaking his party he presents his flowers to the wrong lady. A blow on the optics, a lively free-for-all, and the appearance of the officers ends the film.

An exciting fire run and all the spectacular events that follow a fire alarm in Madrid, is included in a splendid film entitled "Fire Drill in Madrid." This is an especially strong number. The other attractions for the week-end are announced in the regular ad. elsewhere in this issue.

ENCAMPMENT SESSION.

New Patriarchs Made and Banquet Spread for Lodge and Visitors.

Last evening was a special occasion for Star Encampment No. 31. Aside from the usual business the Patriarchal degree was given to several. The local lodge was greatly assisted in the degree work by members of Union Encampment who came over in automobiles and returned after the banquet. After lodge an hour was spent at the banquet table, where aside from an abundance of edibles ran a flow of wit and humor, participated in by both candidates, visitors and local members. In the near future the local encampment hopes to be able to return the visit.
